Not as good as the sequel but I love it just the same. I do like how they are all connected and are part of the same universe.

I really love this series and I had waited a lont time to read #18. It was worth the wait.

I have to ask...

Why is Misaki like this?

I would have loved someone like Usagi, and I'm not talking about money and the fact that he is a writter, but still why?

Shinobu. Y R U SO SMOL :(

IM SO IN LOVE WITH MIYAGI AND SHINOBU.

THEY ARE TOO PURE FOR THIS WORLD. THEY MADE ME CRY A LITTLE DAMMIT WHY R THEY SO SWEET???

MY HEART

And also Misaki and Usagi are ADORABLE. I feel sorry for Ijuuin bc he is a nice guy but Misaki and Usagi are ENDGAME :D

I love it when Misaki thinks about Usagi. I already knew that Usagi loved him, but seeing Misaki loving Usagi with all of his soul and heart makes me wanna die. I even think that maybe he loves Usagi even more than Usagi loves him D: He is just so deeply in love with him I can't :")

I LOVE THIS SO MUCH.

QUICK THOUGHTS (on the series not this volume):

I have been following this for a while and yes, some of the usual tropes and annoyances that come with the genre I still dislike (especially when it comes to CONSENT!!), I enjoy Junjou Romantica.

I like the unique setting with Usagi's job and the glimpses we get into that and I especially Hiro and Nowaki as a couple. (I can identify with Hiro quite a bit at times, as well as with Misaki.) Something that strikes a chord in me with this story are some of the memorable quotes I have jotted down here and there. (And for such a long time, too.)

I had stopped reading this for quite a while, so it makes me happy that I can now catch up to a bit of story now :D

OH! And the artwork, I really do enjoy Nakamura Shungiku's drawings quite a lot.

EEEK! Ijuuin-sensei is quite a creepy character! Pretty despicable, yikes.
