I love handmade things, especially if they're made personally for the recipient, or designed by the maker. So the scene where Arisaka and Kuromine give Hibari's baby some one-year clothes was my favorite in this volume. If I were Hibari, I'd be weeping buckets. Because this is a sweet, cuddly manga, every life change is happy and filled with friends and gifts. It's just nice.

I don't really get Tsuyu. Her introductory sequence was especially weird. But it's good to see Ageha make a new female friend who is connected to her work at VB Rose.

Chelsea says

This volume was a lot of fun and introduced another new character from Arisaka and Mitsuya's past.

good manga

Nicole says

Yukari's "awakening" love for Ageha - his realization of just how much he is attracted to her, etc. - is really fun and sweet. So many heart fluttering moments for me as the reader...

Joy says

I'm not a huge fan of jealousy subplots, and the obstacles to Arikasa and Ageha's relationship seem trivial and artificial. That said, this series remains a mostly winning read because the humor is so effective. I don't think I will ever get tired of Mitsu teasing Arikasa or of Mamoru being impossibly devious. More please!

I absolutely loved number five it was so funny. Banri sure did turn the series back on the usual side except Yukari was a bit girly well more girly then he usually is. I loved how the date turned out and that new girl is really funny. Mitsu has a new bully toy. He's always picking on someone now adays though it use to be just Ageha. Well the ending was a bit stupid to me though its not like she was talking to Mitsu or something.

OH MY GOSH~! It just gets BETTER and BETTER!! I know that from the way things began in this series, it was a really slow start. Ageha wasn't in her best state, things were dramatic in the more annoying way, and the time it took to build up to any sort of romantic interest was until about the last volume. In this one, WE MAKE PROGRESS THOUGH! 8D In fact, I loooove the progression of the relationships and drama in this part of the series. By the time you hit Volume 4, things finally begin to start moving in a way that you can feel them moving. By this volume, things are WELL on their way to moving forward! Even with all the moments of, "NOOO! DON'T GO BACKWARDS! DXPROGRESS! ;O;!!" But things are soooo moving forward on the romantic end~! It's absolutely DELIGHTFUL already! Even though you honestly want to facepalm and smack these two dunderheads for being so slow and inept when it comes to relationships, you can't help but see the way they're both growing. ESPECIALLY YUKARI. AGHHH! That guy is a man! 8DDD! Seriously, the way he just does some things, overcoming whatever it is that's bubbling up from the past, is absolutely amazing. It would be amazing even if he didn't have past influences to overcome! How much fun he is, and how FREELY he admits what he wants! Gotta LOVE a man who knows what he wants! And you've got to love a man who's taking every step to getting it even more. >:3 *Snickers/smirks*

Oh! Oh! 8D We got another new character too! Her name is Ichihashi Tsuyu-san! She comes off instantly as... weird! XD She definitely gives you the impression of being waaaaay too odd at first, but she grows on you so fast! I love how friendly and sweet she is! For all her funny, awkward, shy and oddball qualities--and she definitely has a lot! *Laughs*--she is true to who she is always and so honest with herself as well. She's a caring, considerate, and overall lovely person. She's become one of my favorite characters very quickly! And when you see the veeery interesting side she brings out in one of the characters.... *Cackles diabolically* Oh, when you SEE what happens when Tsuyu-san comes into the picture, you are going to be SO intrigued!! >8D At least I know I was! It's INTENSE. And kinda veeery sexy. XD Not to mention she has a GREAT relationship with one of our other characters! 8DDD Seriously! Watching them two together, you can just tell how great a friendship they have! They're so close! It's really a beautiful thing to be able to recognize such a strong bond so quickly, especially when you've just been introduced a brand new character that you've never seen before! Hidaka-sensei's skills continuously astound me. She's a master of relationships and people's interactions! I know it seems like something so little to comment on, but you don't find many mangas that have the same smoothness and feeling of being natural like Banri Hidaka's V.B. Rose.

I don't have much else to say about this volume, so it seems it's going to remain a short review! But if you've been keeping up with my other reviews, you should know quite a bit about my feelings as well! I'll try to continue to give character updates and comment on anything major going on in the plot/story without giving things away! (Which is why this one had to be so short. XD I cannot tell you all the juicy bits! You have to read that for yourself!!!) I can tell you this much though: The story only gets better and better from here on out. And the romance and drama increases to the point where there's awesome at every turn! IT GETS GOOOOD. So if you've had a chance to pick up the series, keep on going! And if you haven't by now, don't let the first couple of volumes dissuade you from trying it out further! It's a rewarding series if you give it the time. <3
