Another solid volume, this one continues the arc in which Lt. Col. Guren, Yuichiro and co. attack a gaggle of vampire nobles so as to provide a distraction under cover of which the main force of the Japanese Imperial Demon Army attacks elsewhere.

There's a clarification of relative strength for sure--if the book stays consistent going forward--as there is no pretense by any of the humans that it takes anything less than a whole squad(s) to deal with a vampire noble. The success in last volume has lead up to the attempt to redeem the failure of squads that don't include Kagami's protagonists leads to the group facing an even more powerful group of nobles. Also Yuichiro's connection to at least one young vampire seem's on the verge of not just being discovered, but put on display for his Imperial Demon Army fellows.

The book seems to me to definitely be headed towards "can't we all just get along" territory at some moments, not something I like when dealing with stories with vampires. I'm hoping it's not as simple as that as the complexities that lead to cooperation makes sense and could be the extent of the foreshadowed changes in vampire human relations.

Another good volume. Liking the series so far. Awesome cover.

Peter Barr says

Seraph of the End, Volume 8 continues the battle on Nagoya. The group must take on vampire nobles. This edition tells the tale of the battle. The group will lose and grow at the same time. There is more going on that will be revealed. The tales is a good one in this volume and leads to hope in the future for the series.

Joana says

Shinoa... I told you not to touch Yuu!!!! Jesus Christ just stop this!!

Stop trying to create a thing between them because that will not happen!

Only Mikayuu is real!

Well, Mikayuu and Gurenshi.

Mikayuu and Gurenshi are OTP!

"I've finally found you, Yuu."

My babes are finally going to be together. :')

Guren and Shinya... I just can't get enough of them! I need more. These two need to become canon.

I keep saying this but.. I'm so excited for Catastrophe at Sixteen! Seeing teen Guren and teen Shinya.. seeing their Squad come together. Knowing more of Goshi and the others.. Young Mika, young Yuu and young Shinoa!

I just can't wait!

Titis Wardhana says

that cover tho... :p

Calvinist Batman says

Just perfect. No extra background plot, but from start to finish is non-stop action and fighting.

Nikki says

Temo por las bajas que se puedan dar en este enfrentamiento, Mika está cada vez más cerca de Yu, no puedo evitar emocionarse pero de igual manera angustiarme, que tal si nada sale como lo ha planeado Mika?, no quiero que sufra! este manga me tiene en suspenso.

✿ cassandra ✿ says

Holy shit! Woah! Okay, okay! What just happened?!?! Shit! Guren and Shinya! Are they actually canon?

Abeer Albossany says

Wow an awesome chapter. I thought Gurren took care of Yuu as a child but then with the series development I dropped this idea. now I know Gurren really cared for yuu.

Elyse says

The team are fighting against vampire noble Lucas Wesker. Lieutenant Guren learn from a soldier that twenty others are hold hostages at Nagoya City Hall. It obviously a trap, but he still decides to go with Shinoa & Narumi's squad. They have a new target: Crowley Eusford.

The vampire lord find humans are starting to become quite strong and wonder if someone from their rank are feeding them information. It is not confirmed yet, but I would bet that it that creep Ferid Bathory!

The rest of the Demon Army get attack by the vampire troop which include Mikaela. One of them get caught by Mika, the young vampire is determinate to find Yuu and use the young soldier for information. It is clear that nothing nor nobody will stand in his way to be reunited with is friend. Mika seems without feelings, nor remorse but I think what he did was a mercy kill. He slips up from the group and is on his way to City Hall. Once the Demon Army realize that they are up against three powerful Noble, they are not sure what actions they should take. Shinya think it is better to kill the hostage before they talk, but Yuu wants to rescue them. Since this is pretty much a suicide mission, Guren's team get to distract Crowley while the two others free their friends.

This volume was action pack. While I found the last one was mostly filler, now thing finally start to move. I can't wait for Mika to be reunited with Yuu! I also really like Crowley (even if I shouldn't since he is beating up the "good guys"), he is just so chill and relax with everything, he clearly know that the humans are no match for him.
