Tia can do this. She should say good-bye to Angel, the love of her life. She should say, "See ya later! Have fun at college. Don't forget me!" But it would be so much easier to say, "Stay." And maybe he would. Maybe he'd give up everything for her... But is that what she really wants?

From book cover:

I can do this.
I can say good-bye to the love of my life.
I can say, "See ya later! Have fun at college!"
But I'd rather say, "Stay." And maybe he would.
Maybe he'd give up everything for me...
But do I really want him to?

Shianne says

Why does Jessica find Will so attractive after everything he put her through? Why would she want to be with Will over JEREMY!?!? I will never understand! MY HEART! JEREMY! Be my boyfriend!

Nur Ain Z. says

Distance is a bitch to a relationship. That's all Imma say.

Sheila Read says

I have read so many of these books I can't remember all of them.

Winna says

I really grow to like Tia Ramirez starting from this book. I like how good she is to Angel, and everyone else. In this book, Tia does not know how to react when Angel loses all his money. And Jessica tries hard to prove to Jeremy that she has no interest in Will - but fails. And also, Ken who is admitted back to his team after several embarrassing attempts.

I like almost everything in this book :)
