Find Yourself

Great book to really understand who you are and some of your struggles within along the way in your walk.

?? says

It is a practical and useful book that helps and improves my life. To get the best result, this book should ideally be used in a mini-retreat setting for completing the seven steps in one occasion. Highly recommended.

Jo Anne says

Interesting and thought provoking

Was a good wee book and helpful to go through. Have find it be before and benefited from it again

Kamila Santos says

Amazing book because it is so BIBLICAL! Easy to read, understand and straight to the point!

Shanna says

This is a really good step-by-step, prayer-by-prayer, book for ensuring that one is free in Christ and not bound to the world and its evil. I found it practical, helpful, and broad. It is an excellent way to pray away evil and focus on good.

Christopher Pokorny says

Helpful to guide a discipleship discussion. Ensure that you are dealing with a proficient Christian before recommending. Could be off putting to those far from the Christian faith.

Rachel says

Changed my life.

Kristy says

pretty decent resource

Gracy says

This "book" (really a pamphlet) was required for a class in Christian formation. I found it contrived and didactic, and in no means useful. The questionnaires are from a past age where sins like caffeine and alcohol garner sure damnation, and the remedies recommended are likewise from ages of old such as a highly suspect prayer that sounds not unlike an incantation. There are definitely better books out there if you are truly seeking Christ.

Fed says

I keep using this over and over. A must DO for all Christians

Dan says

Great to use as guide for helping disciple friends, or as a personal inventory. It addresses key areas in a very straightforward fashion. Anderson didn't want to call them steps, as they can be used in any order, but publisher wanted it. It is really just areas to address in discipleship, like pride, sexual sin, occult involvement, unforgiveness, etc.

Werner Fourie says

This is a very good book on experiencing freedom in Christ. It is very similar to Restoring The Foundations ministry. It is a much-needed companion of every Christian.

Charlie says

Great workbook to help people take practical steps to freedom.

David says

Life changing study when done with Spiritual Friends. Fortunately God provided just such friends for me when I was in Abilene Texas many years ago. They took me through this study and it truly dead set me free and many many ways. Highly recommend this study.
