Forbidden (Wild Sky, #1) Tanna Marie Angers

“What would you do if the person you were destined to love stood right in front of you, and they were the only one you were forbidden to touch?”

When a mysterious boy shows up at Aira’s school, she has no idea she’s about to fall in love with an angelic being who was destined to find her, and that they would have to take on the Darkness not only to save their immortal love but the entire well-being of human existence.

Tanna Marie Angers takes on a popular and marketable theme of young, forbidden love between different beings and creates a teen romance story that will have readers on the edge of their seats waiting for the next installment. The characters are vibrant, the storyline is solid, and there is room to create a powerful following for Aira and her plight of love lost and found through several books. The author is to be commended on this introductory book.

Kara Lyons says

I won this as a Goodreads First Read. I had a hard time connecting with any of the characters and the story seemed to jump around a lot. I wanted to like this book but I just couldn't get into it

Fiona Buchanan says

Wow what a great read! I couldn't put it down. I was pulled in from the very beginning with the author's very intensely personal writing style. I felt like I was right there along for the ride. There was the perfect amount of romance, fantasy and mystery to hook me from beginning to end. The only criticism I have is that it is too short! I can't wait for the next one.

Tammy Collet says

I loved this book...almost couldn't put it down...finished it in 2 evenings of reading...waiting with baited breath for the next installment... I won this as a Good Reads First Read" giveaway and I am so glad I won...
