You Again JoAnn Ross

New York Times bestselling author JoAnn Ross returns to Shelter Bay with a new holiday novella, YOU AGAIN.

A book nerd, a brainiac science guy, and a misplaced killer whale...

Meghann Quinn wasn't always a hugely successful author. Adam Wayne wasn't always a marine biologist studying whales. Back in high school in Shelter Bay, Oregon, she was the shy book nerd helping the brainiac science guy pass English. Meghann had no idea Adam would turn into such a hottie. Adam has no idea their once-upon-a-time sweet summer romance inspired Meghann's popular teen novels.

Two shy geeks didn't have the courage to share their true feelings back then. But now that Meghann's back in town, they're pondering life's important questions. Such as, will Adam ask her to the Snow Ball? And what are they going to do about the lost Orca who shows up on Christmas Eve? And can two nerds get past their initial insecurity to take a second chance on a once-in-a-lifetime love?

You Again also will appear in a Home for Christmas Duet with Jessica Scott.

A sweet holiday story to add to the Shelter Bay collection. Predictable ending? Yes, but it's a Christmas story so of course we want our HEA... heck, I want one of those year round!

Really sappy

I love the older Joann Ross books and keep hoping the newer ones will be just as good. I keep hoping...

This was a good story that moved at a quick pace due to the length of the book. There was a bit of wham - bam - thank you ma'am because the book was so short. Even though the two characters knew each other from school, they hadn't seen each other in years but connected right away and got back together the day they met. I really enjoy the Shelter Bay books and this was a nice story that added to the overall character of the town.

This is a sweet novella of two former Shelter Bay residents...Meghann , a foster child who lived in Shelter Bay during high school, and science genius, Adam Wayne. Meghann is now in NYC, a very successful YA author. Adam is now a Ph.D marine biologist back in Shelter Bay to teach and research whales. The characters are very likeable.

Great short story in the Shelter Bay series

The premise drew me in, ask was definitely a book nerd in high school, and into science and science fiction as well! Meghann and Sam were super characters I could really relate to. Adding the lost whale, Christmas time, and a really cute kid made the story even better! It was short, but that didn't matter. The storyline us pulled you song and intro it. You see a lot of characters from previous books in the series, but you can read this one first. But I bet you will do what I am doing and go back to read all the rest! Enjoy!
