Maud and the Secret Society of Saint Valentine by Emily Tilton ~ Maud has decided that the new boyfriend she's crazy about can't be serious when he tells her she needs a firm hand in the bedroom and everywhere else. The Secret Society of Saint Valentine begs to differ, and summons her to a tribunal where she'll learn just how serious David is.

Felicity Nichols says

The Bound, Spanked, and Loved anthology is unique because each author brings their flavor to it. I was laughing, feeling sympathy, and at some points surprised. Each author gives us a brand new story to read and enjoy. I discovered some new authors while reading and returned to favorite authors I already know and love.

Reading Bound, Spanked, & Loved is the perfect way to get into BDSM Erotica. You'll have several new authors to add to your pile and it's a bargain price for fourteen stories!

Holy heat stroke! This box set lit my e-reader on fire. I loved each of the stories and couldn't get enough. Spankalicious and spicy, this Valentine's Day collection of stories is a treat better than any box of candy. The only way it could be better is if it came with a heart shaped paddle.

Nice work ladies!

What do you get when some of the best erotic writers get together, a really great read. The anthology is a series of short stories that no matter your preference, you will find something you enjoy. Some stories grab at your heart strings, while others will make you laugh. Recommended read as an introduction to new authors to you.

I bought this anthology mostly because I am a Sierra Cartwright fan, and will read everything she writes. But to get this anthology of almost 800 pages for 99 cents is unbelievable! Sierra scores again, and this anthology also introduces me to other authors, and that's the best part - finding new authors in the genre you like to read. Every one of these stories was hot and exciting! I now have several more new to me authors to look up and buy books from! If you pass up this deal, you are crazy!

Ladies (and gents) !!!!

this is IT !!! the #MUSTHave book you all need to own, posses and learn by heart !!

every single one of these authors is my fave, and it brought me a new additions to my stalking list (I'm a nice stalker, promise !!!) and each story blew me away !! its that good !!

But with a heavy heart I need to pick out a favorite out of them all and that would be Sierra Cartwright story - Master class: Initiation <3

It's a story about Logan and Jennifer :) Logan has a mysterious job and a well known BDSM reputation, and Jennifer is business woman, with a bitter taste of past relationship and a newfound taste for BDSM.

This is a story about what happens when you let your desires come true (with a little help from mutual friends and an intentional set up), when you put your faith in a stranger, give a voice to your fantasies, dare to try and at the end gather the courage to go after what you want. And let me tell you, Sierra has every single one of these done down till perfection.

It pulls you into the story, its passion and the strength of its emotions and you can relate and feel it too (wishing for a flogger right now :) !!)

The one thing that always attracts me to a good BDSM story is the relationship between the partners, the trust. And I also learn to love the scare that comes from experiencing something as powerful as that. Sierra knows her business and she makes is THAT GOOD !!!! oh, don't get me started on the rules of the game, and the psychology behind it and overcoming the mental obstacle's to reach the pleasure.

I can go on like this until tomorrow, but my advice is to read it, and read all of the stories and get lost in the sizzling heat, passion and kinky f**kery (its been know phrase)

So super hot!! In this box set its the best way to read something from your favourite author and find some new authors to fall in love with!!

Christine says

This anthology was hot, filled with stories of spanking and love. Here are a few of my favorite from the anthology.

Cari Silverwood (Lust Angel)

This was a story about a fallen angel who is put on earth because she felt the sin of lust towards a handsome earth man. At first she doesn't know what she is but he figures it out and decides ot keep and corrupt her. Along the way they both fall in love but she can't fight against her angelic nature and is very helpful towards other leading her slowly back towards her angel status. The end was fun, I don't want to spoil the surprise. There is some kinky bondage and the sex is super hot, the characters have a great connection and you can feel they love each other. A fun story.

Korey Mae Johnson (Claiming Chloe)

This book was great! I loved the characters, I loved the sex, I loved the story (aliens!).

Renee Rose (Theirs to Punish)

This story was about a woman who plans a heist in order to get a necklace that once belonged to her mother back from her stepmother. But it's a trap set by the owners of the casino her stepmother is staying at. These handsome twins didn't expect their burglar to be a woman. But they find her attractive and have plans for her if she wants to stay out of jail that is. The sex was hot and there was a lot of spanking. Really fun read.

Trent Evans (Taking the Human)

This story was hot! The story had a lot of depth and the sex was off the charts sexy. It's about an alien who finds himself attracted to a human and decides to go against orders and take her for his own pleasure. At first she's a slave, a plaything for his pleasure but then his and her emotions begin to grow into something more than just lust. A good story.

Annabel Joseph (Slab Hands)

This was a fun story about a girl who unexpectedly finds a guy in a club who is into spanking and decides to show her what it's like to be properly spanked. Things heats up and their relationship begins to grow. Loved the ending and the spanking was hot! Annabel Joseph writes some steamy stories.

So if you haven't figured it out by now the spankings in this story were like I said hot! If you're into spanking stories and stories of love than this anthology is for you.

Kelsey says

I usually read an anthology and think that some of the stories are good, some are OK, and some I just don't finish because they bore me. That's not what happened when I read this book. Every single story in Bound, Spanked and Loved was hot. They were scorching. There were 14 stories in total and I LOVED every one of them. There was something for everyone. There was Domestic Discipline, light BDSM, Alien Abduction, Step-Brother alpha, and more. I've read all of these authors before so I knew I would like the book, but I didn't know how much. If you're into kinky stories then you can't go wrong with these Valentine's stories. Some of the stories are part of different series, but they can all be read as standalones. After reading these you'll eagerly seek out each of these authors to read more. I can't recommend this book enough and wish I could give it more than FIVE STARS!

Wow! I received an ARC of Sierra Cartwright's Master Class: Initiation of this compilation and damn that is one very hot, very sexy and very intense read! It was amazing! Logan is a Master I would love to play with! He is incredibly hot and the chemistry between him and Jennifer is incredible! Along with Sierra are some amazing authors! What a collection!!!

Whitney Cartwright says

I read Sue Lyndon's novella, and Sierra Cartwright's as ARCs. I truly loved both stories and thought they were wonderful! All of the stories in this set are brand new and stand alone novellas, ensuring you're not sucked into buying 15 more books!

Initiation by Sierra Cartwright was a fantastic quick read! I loved the plotline. Since it's a novella I won't go into too many details, but the heroine and her friends had me laughing, and the hero's tenderness made me audibly go "aww" more than once! For an erotic novella, I thought this was well worth 99 cents on its own.

Sue Lyndon's novella was quite a bit shorter than Miss Cartwrights, I read it in about an hour, hour and a half. I *adored* this dystopian story, though! Again with such a short story, I don't want to post spoilers, however, I adored the storyline and empathized heavily with the heroine. The hero was wonderful and the story had me sucked in from page 1 to the very end. I'm looking forward to reading every story in this set!

Jennifer says

Wow, what unexpected fun I had reading Bound, Spanked and Loved, a HUGE anthology of spanking and BDSM themed short stories that's been released by fourteen authors in the genre in time for Valentine's Day. This is quite a hefty collection at almost 800 pages and I tried to read it almost straight through so as not to forget any of these unique stories. Some of the authors included in this anthology were well known to me, including Annabel Joseph, Sierra Cartwright, and Cari Silverwood (making this a must read for me), but others were completely unknown. Don't let the unknown scare you away, however. I'm not being cliché when I say there's something for everyone here. It's true that all the stories have a spanking/BDSM theme, so it should be a prerequisite that you enjoy a little kink in your reading, but the subgenres are really wide open and fascinating, from traditional Dom/sub play in an established BDSM community, to M/M/F ménage, to paranormal, to historical. I found the tie-ins to Valentine's Day a bit forced in some, but each features not just erotic play, but a developing romance as well. You'll get an HEA or happy for now ending for all of them. That doesn't mean they're all sweet and cuddly, however. The spankings and rough play in most are beyond a little slap and tickle and many ride a line of consensual non-consent that I found the most enjoyable aspect of the reading. My Kindle was on fire!

I find it REALLY hard to pick out a few favorites, as there wasn't a single dud in the bunch, but here are my highlights:

"Slab Hands" by Annabel Joseph, where a bouncer and a girl who wants nothing more than to be spanked by him discover each other

"Theirs to Punish" by Renee Rose, where a stepdaughter hell-bent on revenge plans a jewel heist in a Vegas hotel and is caught by two kinky brothers. The price for their silence is her submission.

"Lust Angel" by Cari Silverwood, where an angel, fallen for lusting over a mortal man, discovers her need for submission and punishment.

"Stepbrother Jerk" by Natasha Knight, where a stepbrother ensures that his naughty stepsister never breaks the law again by teaching her a lesson of who she belongs to.

I could go on! There is an alien abduction, alien ménage, a sexy private investigator, a sweet but hot historical involving an ice farmer and his feisty charge, A Viking warrior, ballroom dancing, a secret society, a sexy ex-teacher turned Dom who has quite the flogger collection and a "hero" who rescues his betrothed from slavers.

As you can see, these are anything but your usual spanking fare, and I took it as an opportunity to enjoy what variety is really out there in the world of BDSM erotic romance. So often, we read what's in the spotlight and don't venture off to discover new things. Well worth the $0.99 this collection will cost and each story can be read in about 30 minutes, making it easy to pace yourself and savor everything it has to offer.

ARC provided as a gift from the author for an honest review.
