This was cute. I wish I didn't like/follow so many authors because I miss these sort of things. Thank goodness Buroker put this together.

Debra Novotny says

Wonderful little stories

Quick fill in stories. Each took me a short time to read. Perfect right before bed. I recommend you read them before moving on to Book 8

Liz Wood says

Funny

Two of the scenes were more ideas, but the last of the three tales was wonderful. I liked them, as usual, a lot.

Liza says

Entertaining bonus scenes - Ridge is thinking about proposing to Sardelle and so asks various friends how and where he should pop the question. Of course, the proposal doesn't happen in the ways that they suggest. Nice characters, nice story.

Noodle TheNaughtyNightOwl says

9/10: Fantastic, left me wanting more.

In desperate need of more Dragon Blood, I thankfully found this little gem on Lindsay's website.

Perfect!

But please give us more. :)

Paul Devall says

Just started this collection.

After this one I'll take a break from fantasy and go back to my other love of motorcycle adventure travel. I have a few stacked up on the Kindle!

Joanne Pilkiw says

Great read

Loved this little diversion, wow what a proposal. Glad they finally got round to it, now onto the next book, do not want this story to end.

BridgetT says

These bonus scenes were provided at the end of the audible edition of SOULBLADE. Cute snippets.

Diane says

Short but FUN, and perfectly illustrates the characters

I really enjoyed reading these humorous "bonus" scenes (building toward a proposal of marriage between Ridge and Sardelle) when they were posted on her site, and I was happy to see her package them for e-readers. NOT the place to START reading Dragon Blood, but irresistible for fans like me.

N.b, I shelved it both in "shortest" (which each individual scene would be) and "shorter" (novelette-length, which the full sequence is).

Jane says

These short stories take place between Soulblade and The Shattered Past, so technically they could/should be called Dragon Blood #7.25 ... or something similar, I think. Anyway, all of the stories happen around a Duck Blind behind Zirkander's house and I guess that's why there's a mention of fowls.

Due to the shortness of each story, I'll keep my commentary very brief.

Fowl Advice

Basically a conversation between General Ort and Ridge. General Ort gave Ridge some advice and it was actually pretty funny.

Fowl Friends

Phel and Bhraava Sarduth in one room. Priceless. Although there was way too little of them. Otherwise Ridge asks Cas some advice too. Not nearly as funny as Ort's advice, mind you.

Fowl Revelations

Bhraava Sarduth and Ridge's mother who doesn't believe in dragons. Funny as hell. It's a pity that they didn't talk to each other ...

A Fowl Proposal

Awww, that was just plain sweet and adorable and partly funny as well.

Michael saysNice

Thanks for this together on here for us ebook readers ,a nice funny interlude with some love charecters. If you like steampunk you should give this series a go.

Rinelle Grey says

Very cute extra scenes. I love the little extras that really flesh this world out.

Ken Bookmyer saysDon't duck this fine tail

It's very short but a fun interlude on what is mostly a high action series. Nobody dies not a single airship brought down.

Susan saysFun

I am di glad these were written up!! They made me giggle and sigh. Men can be silly. Just do it already!!!
???

Alison saysCute story

A fun aside about Ridge and Sardelle. Just a short story of the two of them. No action, just a
