Hasta ahorita el que menos me ha gustado, aunque debo de decir que el final me dejó con ganas de más. Espero que entré Rin y Shiemi suceda algo de romance como vaya avanzando la historia.

Buried under the boy's manga themes of fight scenes and big bosomed girls wearing next to nothing, are some interesting ideas. I'm liking this manga more than I expected to. We start to get to know the real Rin in this volume, beneath the bluster. The brothers' relationship is examined and it is inherently uneven. Rin, the protector, is all about his muscles. His twin, Yukio, is the studious one and at True Cross Academy the power is actually all Yukio's as he's already an instructor and well, Rin is barely literate. In personality they remind me a bit of the Elric brothers but Rin isn't as smart as Edward and Yukio is a bit harder than Alphonse.

Interwoven into the story lines, which include a demon cat who was the familiar of the priest who raised the boys and the ghost of a boy at an amusement park, is the idea that Rin avoided school for two reasons, one he wanted to protect the weaker kids, like his twin but was so freakishly strong he hurt kids and two, the kids and adults learned to fear him. He doesn't have friends, doesn't know how to have them. At the Academy he's learning to be a normal kid.

But it might already be too late. Rin is relying more and more on the blue flame, his Satanic heritage, to fight with and the magic sword is barely enough to contain him. Case in point, another demon who may or may not be helping the humans steals the sword and Rin loses control. Enter Shura, an exorcist who was also the priest's apprentice. She may have to kill Rin if he can't control himself.

Rin, Shiemei and some of their classmates are sent into demon-infested woods for training camp. Yukio and Shura are quick to point out that Rin will be unable to use his power because it'll be seen in the dark but once Shiemei is hurt, can Rin not use his powers to save her.

Ignoring the ridiculous outfits and boobs on Shura, the art is very nice and the storyline is maturing. I'm looking forward to seeing more.

I should take away a star for the F-cups covered by the triangle bra (because girl, no, talk to your chesty friends about why that is no good for athletic exorcist work), but I still find this charming to read on that same "it's Harry Potter but with more of a sense of doom!" level.

[I do love Kuro and how Rin tamed him instead of letting Yukio hurt him. Rin is hilarious as always, I love his reactions to Shiemi and how he obviously likes her. Amaimon is mysterious and I can't actually remember

4.5.

Por qué este manga está siendo tan maravilloso. Por favor. Me encanta la profundidad del personaje de Rin, e incluso me he llegado a emocionar un poquito con ciertos recuerdos. Que, hablando de recuerdos, creo que son de lo mejorcito que hace Kato. Ay, qué ganas de seguir. Este tomo ha sido GENIAL.

I absolutely love this series, and I adore the artwork.

Oh, we can't just have a nice, big boob girl? We have to have a badass girl with even BIGGER BOOBS. Oh well, still a fun storyline. And yay for cats.

Este tomo me agrado mucho más que el anterior, ya que aquí ya tenemos misiones, nuevos personajes mas fuertes y misteriosos. Nuestro protagonista tienen que enfrentar pruebas y creerse un gran exorcista y no depender de la llama azul.

¿Para qué leer Blue exorcist vol 3?

1. Para ver como los lazos de amistad son eternos y duraderos, cuando las personas conocen a debilidades y aciertos.
2. Conocemos la historia y antecedentes de muchos personajes misteriosos.
3. El material extra nos ayuda a entender el proceso creativo de un manga y la enciclopedia de demonios.
4. Los personajes femeninos toman una fuerza extraordinaria.
5. Los ambientes son mas creativos, como un bosque y un parque de diversiones y un puente.

El demonio en forma de gato, esta bien bonito.
