Three women, three Doms. One extraordinary night. Welcome to Dark Haven, and may all of your darkest wishes come true...

Met Her Match (A Hawkeye Story) by Sierra Cartwright

Genre: BDSM Erotic Contemporary

Series: Hawkeye; Previous Book: Bend Me Over

Highly trained Mira Araceli can hold her own in the toughest parts of the world, but not, it seems, against her secret crush, Torin Carter. She'd fallen for her Hawkeye instructor years before, and to him, she'd been just another recruit; fresh, green, idealistic.

Torin, with his dark Irish good looks and fierce temper, doesn't want a partner, any partner, and especially not Mira. But assignments are assignments, and he takes his responsibilities seriously. So when the beautifully submissive Mira crawls into his bedroom, a leather belt between her teeth, he calls on all his resolve to send her away.

Unsatisfied, Mira ups the stakes and finds another dom to play with at Dark Haven. Beyond furious, Torin storms into Master Xavier's club and claims his rights to dominate Mira. For the first time in her life, she's met her match.

Educating Evangeline by Belinda McBride

Genre: BDSM Shape-shifter Paranormal

This isn't what she came here for!

Pursued by a group of mysterious hunters, Evangeline Jones was desperate for sanctuary when she ducked into the doorway of Dark Haven. Instead of safety, she discovers a decadent, sensual world that challenges her very outlook on life.

Harte Sommers is charmed by the little wolf with the pink streak in her ebony hair. As alpha of the Napa pack, he sometimes feels that he's alone at the top. When he meets Eva, he knows he might not be able to keep his wild little wolf at his side, but his heart tells him that his lonely days might be at an end.

Simon Says: Mine by Cherise Sinclair

Genre: BDSM Erotic Contemporary

Related Title: Master of the Mountain

With an empty nest and divorce in hand, Rona decides it's time to explore the fantasies that nourished her through a long, tedious marriage to a man whose idea of outrageous sex was leaving the lights on. At the top of her fantasy list is touring Dark Haven, the BDSM club, but she isn't prepared for the effect of a powerful Dom. When Master Simon takes control and introduces her to toys and sensations she's never felt before, she realizes he could fulfil every fantasy on her list all by himself. But she's vowed to never get trapped in a relationship again.

One of the most popular Doms in Dark Haven, Master Simon has had his fill of eager, shallow, young subs. Rona is older, intelligent, independent...and sweetly submissive. After an evening of intense pleasure and despite her obvious attraction, she refuses to see him again. He needs a way to change her mind. She's not the first sub he's taken on a journey of exploration, but he's beginning to think she might be the last.

Publisher's Note: This book contains explicit sexual content, graphic language, and situations that some readers may find objectionable: Anal play/intercourse, strong BDSM theme and elements to include exhibitionism and voyeurism.

H O T. I read this book for the third part which was written by my favorite BDSM author Cherise Sinclair. What a hot story! I loved that they were 40 and sexy as hell. With most BDSM and romance novels choosing innocent female leads in their twenties, it gives us gals in our early 30's something different and erotically refreshing to look forward to!

I read the first part by Sierra Cartwright and I gave it 3 stars. I didn't read the second part because I don't "do" paranormal. The third part was worth all 5 stars. All self respecting Cherise Sinclair fans MUST read Simon and Rona's story. It was great reading about Jake and Logan too from the Mountain Masters series 1 and 2. Great read!

3 Hot Doms and 3 Beautiful Submissives - what's not to like?

The most interesting part of the first story was the fact they were already partners. Mira and Torin trusted each other going in. It was everything else they had to work out.

Harte was an Alpha Male and an Alpha Wolf. The trick for him was to figure out how to combine the two with Eva.

Rona had to figure out just what she wanted. Was the secret to avoiding a bad relationship not limiting herself to a single man - even one like Simon?

The way all three couples met on the same night at Dark Haven really worked. I liked the little cameos and crossovers between the stories.

The only possible negative was that they were so cookie-cutter. All 3 involved women who had never been into BDSM before falling for a Dom with years of experience and a bevy of past beauties. But that does seem to be a popular idea.

This is an anthology with 3 stories.

The first story Met Her Match was AWFUL. The hero was a sadistic bully, the heroine was a pain sl*t. He loved to give intense pain and she loved to get it. Yikes, If this was my first bdsm story, I would never read another.

I would give this book 1 star and that's generous.

The second story was Educating Evangeline. This was a paranormal shape shifting story. I couldn't get into it at all and it was just eh for me.

I would give it 3 stars.

Now the last book Simon Says, Mine by Cherise Sinclair is the reason I wanted to read this anthology and I was NOT disappointed. The H/h are both older and Master Simon is SEXY. What a guy Mmmmm. The heroine was someone I could really relate to. She was wonderful and some of the things she said and thought were so funny I laughed out loud. My only complaint is that this wasn't a full length book.

I would give this story 5 plus stars.

Cindy says

This is the anthology that introduced me to BDSM reads that had actual plots and enjoyable characters. It also added all three authors to my “Must find more by these authors immediately” list!

The Met Her Match story by Sierra Cartwright is related to her Hawkeye books – both the hero and heroine are employed by Hawkeye as security specialists. The dynamics of two partners establishing the parameters of their relationship – in and out of the BDSM world – is the driver for this story.

You do not have to read any of the other Hawkeye books to know what is going on – although several of the supporting characters have their own books in this series. They all tend to towards the rougher end of sexual activity but as they say “If it’s consensual and works for all involved... who am I to say anything?”

Educating Evangeline by Belinda McBride is a paranormal read, related to the Truckee Wolves books. Goodreads lists this story as #2 in the series, but you do not have to read the first, Toxic, before reading this one. [It is a good read though, I enjoyed it.]

Intent on escaping the evil representatives of Abraxis [the usual group of evil scientists to whom medical ethics are a closed book], Evangeline follows a group of people into Dark Haven. Dark Haven turns out to be a BDSM club but she is allowed to join the group. Trying to ‘blend’ she meets Harte – alpha of a pack of shifters in the Napa Valley. There are dominance issues, pack politics and, of course, the Abraxis hunters to be dealt with but maybe, just maybe, Evangeline may have finally found a home and Harte a partner.

Simon Says: Mine by Cherise Sinclair. Oh my. This author is such a find. The hero and heroine were absolutely wonderful and I loved that they were ‘older’ and still hot and sexy. [Of course your concept of older changes through the years. I’d stand in line to be looking at 40 – from either side!] This is a wonderful introduction to the ‘whys’ of BDSM plus more than a few ‘hows’ – with emphasis on communication, mutual consent and always safety.

Simon is as alpha as they come – but brings out the romance and sweetness as well. Rona was in some ways very typical – a woman with issues related to her age and her body-image – who keeps assuming no one would want her. Fortunately Simon can be a very determined man who has a firm grasp of her issues – and her.

Goodreads lists this as #1.5 in the Dark Haven/Mountain Masters series. You don’t have to read the others [although you will want to] as it works very well as a standalone.

In many ways this reads more like a novel than the anthology. Since all three stories occur at Dark Haven on the same night, each story has glimpses of the characters and scenes that are central to the other two stories.

The writing styles are compatible, the action flows very smoothly through the book. Very well done, ladies!

3.0 RATING- I only read the Cherise Sinclair novella. It was okay. I'm glad I borrowed this one and didn't pay for it. The heroine got on my nerves a bit with her need for indepedance. Overal, only kind of meh for me.

Doms of Dark Haven

Met Her Match by Sierra Cartwright

3.5 Stars-Good

I really enjoyed this story. There is nothing like a well written story and when you add that it's part of a series I'm hooked. Though not long at 9 chapters it was enough and not rushed. I didn't feel that I was missing anything by not reading the first book in the series which is again a testament to good writing.

Torin and Mira are two strong characters that really heated up these pages and the last shower scene was wet and wonderful. Only thing I couldn't get into is when Mira sometimes referred to herself in the third person during a scene but that's it.

I've already purchased the rest of the series!

Educating Evangeline by Belinda McBride

3.5 Stars-Good

Another new author for me and my only disappointment is that there is no series yet that I can see on the Truckee pack. I've got my eye on it when it comes out that's how much I liked this one. All 10 chapters went by quickly and enjoyably. I was thrown a bit with wolves into the BDSM thing but I'm up for reading more.

Simon Says: Mine by Cherise Sinclair

4 Stars-Very Good

Humor is one of the things that draw me to Ms. Sinclair's stories because she does it so well and I know I will always get a laugh. There was a plethora of toys in this story that stirred my imagination through all 8 chapters too.

Mira reminds me of the girl in school at the back of the line, who wants but doesn't expect the hot popular guy to notice her, never mind pick her over all the popular girls. I like that Simon picked her;)

Gotta love a man with experience:

"Of course he's dangerous—he has a flogger, and he knows how to use it."

I believe this next line is what made me enjoy this story so much because it's the inner woman in some of us wanting to explore:

"Maybe, while here, she could try a little bit—just a taste, not a whole meal. Have someone tie her hands or something."

I have all the other Dark Haven books in the queue.

Just the Cherise Sinclair story

So... After finishing Master of the Mountain yesterday evening I just had to read Simon's novella. It didn't disappoint. I love these guys!

What I wanted to share was my feeling concerning the Dark Haven. After reading about the Shadowlands, the Dark Haven club seems so disorganized. Anyone can get in, not enough safeguards in place. I don't know how anyone could ever relax enough to "play" there. Still, there are a lot about BDSM that I don't understand.

I love this series so far almost as much as the Shadowlands(not quite there but close enough).

Judi says

Cherise Sinclair's story get 4 1/2 stars, the other 2 stories get 3 stars.

I admit I only purchased this book because I needed another Cherise Sinclair fix. I am addicted to her Doms from Club Shadowlands and since I'm caught up on that series, I was on the hunt for a new Dom to love. I know it's only a short story but it's better than nothing and Ms. Sinclair knows how to write great stories.

All three stories in this anthology occur on the same night at Dark Haven during a Victorian era themed night.

It may have been third in the book (saving the best for last?) but I'm getting right to my main attraction.

Simon Says: Mine by Cherise Sinclair

While Dark Haven is no Club Shadowlands (cries) there were many similarities. Master Simon has all the same qualities as the Doms at Shadowlands.

I immediately liked Rona. Older, mature, recently divorced, grown kids, a nurse and looking to cross a few items off her to-do list. And like a lot of Sinclair's heroine's, she doesn't think she's young enough, thin enough or pretty enough. Thankfully Sinclair's Doms don't seem to mind at all and in fact prefer this type of woman...like most of us.

A few quick impressions of Master Simon from Rona's point of view (just to get you in the mood):

“Of course he's dangerous - he has a flogger, and he knows how to use it“.

God, he was so gorgeous, like a blade, but not a bland kitchen knife - more like a medieval dagger. Elegant and deadly, but the look in his eyes was so caring. Almost loving.

Cue the shivers and chills!

Every time I read one of these books, Sinclair introduces a new aspect of this lifestyle she hasn't used before. I feel like I'm getting an education right along with the heroine.

Suctions cups? WTF? Holy Moly...do these things really go on? I felt like the suction cups should have come with a warning: Objects may appear larger than they actually are...only in this case - THEY grew/became/stayed larger - ohhhhhh my!

Things move fast in a short story. Simon is another seemingly perfect, understanding, caring, totally in tune Dom who's number 1 priority is his sub. I liked that while Rona expressed an interest in the lifestyle - she wasn't really looking to “tie” herself to one man. Simon took all her misgivings and threw them right out the window. SMOKIN' HOT! 4 1/2 Starts

Met Her Match: Sierra Cartwright

How can 2 operatives work together and have to trust each other and have a Dom/S relationship?

Torin Carter didn't want to cross the bounds with his partner Mia Araceli but she was determined to force his hand (or another male appendage) so when he's forced to stake his claim on Mira at Dark Haven and publicly punish her - it changes the rules in their relationship.

Mira likes Torin's "heavy hand". She's been after him for awhile to show her the Dom/s ropes. Showing up nekkid on his bed with his belt in her mouth - well if that isn't a clear message...??

I liked the dynamic between Torin/Mira and was wondering how they would be able to handle the Dom/s relationship and then transition to an equal footing on a partnership - work relationship. Needless to say they worked things out to everyone's satisfaction.

Another hot short story 3 stars

The final story Educating Evangeline was my least favorite of the three.

Evangeline's a lone wolf who needs the help of alpha Werewolf Dom Harte Sommers and his pack when she's being hunted and stumbles into Dark Haven one night . She agrees to his terms and conditions and agrees to submit and learn from Harte in exchange for his protection.

This story was ok but just didn't pack the punch when compared to the "master" Sinclair.

This anthology was very entertaining...and hot!! I squirmed through the entire read. For me, there is nothing sexier than a dominant man, and I had the pleasure of reading about three. All three stories were equally good, but my favorite was Simon Says: Mine. OMG!! Simon was one sexy mutha! I wanted him to spread ME on the table and just devour me in an all-you-can-eat buffet. So strong, intelligent, and caring, I'm glad Rona pulled her head out of her ass and snatched him up. Damn!! As I was saying – a fabulous read. It truly left me wanting more.

Solo valorado el cuento de Cherise Sinclair. La historia de Simon y Rona es muy interesante, qué pena que sea una historia tan corta.

Cute, but way too short for me to get fully invested in these two...but Master Simon sure was yummy! :)

Where is this Dark Haven and are there any more doms available? I enjoyed this little anthology. Hot scenes and enjoyable!

1. Met Her Match by Sierra Cartwright - 1*

What a ridiculous take on BDSM! As if furious wannabe James Bonds and Kill Bill brides hopping madly around a glitzy fantasy dungeon and assigning women at will is anywhere close to sane, never mind consensual or sanitary. These guys are straight from the cave.

2. Educating Evangeline by Belinda McBride - 1*

If I ever read the phrase "inner wolf" again, I'll probably explode. This was the usual shifter bullshit with a side serving of boring sex and boring BDSM.

3. Simon Says: Mine by Cherise Sinclair - 1*

Not just that the hero is a passive-aggressive arsehole who, even though giving lip-service to SSC/RACK, gets insertive sexual with a woman he has just met and who he "forcefully convinces" into submitting to him, the whole story is so rife with sorry old clichés, that I was wincing practically every other page. Yes, he can beat up other men just nice. Yes, he gets called "Master" and "Sir" and whatnot. Yes, he of course foists himself on a woman telling him she has no interest. And yes, of course this nonsense ends with marriage, even though the heroine stated she didn't want to re-marry.

Oh, and just a short note: safer sex needs to be extended to toys and fingers/hands etc. used. After these three stories I feel like having contracted chlamydia, probably crabs, nice cases of athlete's foot, maybe Hep B and C, and possibly a couple of worse STIs. And it wasn't written so you could forget it.

Not recommended at all.

A review for Simon Says: Mine by Cherise Sinclair

A totally awesome installment into one of the hottest series out there.

Pure Rapture!

I was so glad to see Simon get his own story, and WHAT a story it was!

I love all the "Men on the Mountain", but Simon really is my favorite, I guess because he is older, and doesn't have to have a 20 something skinny woman, he has a woman that is a little older and a little rounder, and she is "teachable"! And boy does he teach her!

Cherise Sinclair is my new favorite author, not to mention my favorite genre!
