Dusk Lane Jill Penrod

Meandering around a volcanic ridge, through jungle lowlands, and over salt flats, Dusk Lane is a route only the most desperate travelers find, and without strong guides nobody can survive the path through the beautiful and dangerous interior of the continent Chimelu.

Rika is one such guide, but this group of travelers might prove to be more than he can handle, for each has suffered great loss. Young Aaden has lost his music; beautiful Lunette has lost her voice; bold Annora has lost her future; and all three hope something on the path can restore them. Rika finds he has lost his detachment, and as he sinks more deeply into the lives of his travelers, he realizes this trek down the Lane may change his entire life. Of course, they're traveling in the rainy season when the path is most dangerous, so there's a good chance they won't survive to change at all.

Take another trek into the world of Balia in this installment of the Tales of Balia, the Christian fantasy series for adults and teens about a rich land not so different from our own and the god who wanders it looking to save lost people and bring them home.

C.M. says

This is one of my favorite books in the Balia series yet. I loved watching the characters' journeys toward deeper faith and understanding. The nice thing about Jill Penrod's plots is that you rarely know which way the story is going to turn next! Her stories are well woven. I love how the characters' lives - past and present - affect everyone around them and can be so intricately tied together. Dusk Lane is another winner in my book!
