VERY LIGHT HEARTED EASY READ

If you've read romance books before, this one won't surprise you. It's very light hearted, a quick read, and the fact two young teen children are involved, helps make it funny.

Great read for the beach, a hammock, or even a sofa.

Lovely Setting

As usual, we are not disappointed by the characters we find in Debbie's books Only this time they are on a lovely Island in the San Juans. Her descriptions of the scenery live little to the imagination. One can understand how relationships can flourish in such a beautiful place. Once more , I am swept away in romance.

I really enjoyed this story. It was so hard to put down.

The next book in the set is Private Paradise. Another great book by Debbie Macomber. Beth has been widowed awhile and her friend Mary Jane suggests that Beth and her son Paul join them on a business trip to Spruce Island. Mary Jane's husband has to do some consulting work and Mary Jane thinks it would be great to spend some time with her best friend Beth and Beth's son Paul.

A wonderful month long vacation shared between two long time girl friends changes totally because of family emergency. As things happen by the unexpected, two families deal with major changes greatly encouraged and two young matchmaker met new callings. I had a lot of fun watching the changes in the teen's behavior and their growing up. A heart warming, fun story as done so well by Debbie Macomber. Anxious to read her newest book.
