I received this book as a Goodreads First Reads winner and really enjoyed it. I would call this a romantic comedy. As I usually enjoy crime and historical fiction, I was surprised at how much I enjoyed this book. There is something to be said for 'light reading'. I loved the characters, and especially liked the relationship between Valerie and Sydney (her sister). I half expected something tragic to happen in this book, and you will need to read it to find out. It had me laughing out loud and I had to make myself put it down at night so I could sleep! I must say I feel like getting my teeth into something a bit grittier now, but hey, that's what crime is about:) I really enjoyed this book, and would recommend it if you feel like something entertaining and light!

it was a bit bland. A story of woman meets man, then she meets another man. She likes both men and settles for one without ever really knowing / saying why. The book is littered with references to nightmares - why? the author does nothing with those nightmares. Why did she have them what did they mean?
