I liked it when Rachel bought a yummy doughnut and went close to one of the four goblins to attract him to the smell so that Kirsty can take the goblin's spot so that other goblins would pass her Zoe's magic lace.

This was my first foray into the seemingly wildly popular Magic Rainbow Fairy (or some similar combination of these terms) series. I don't want to be too harsh on this book, but...It was fairly suspense and enjoyment free. Not to give away a spoiler but a major plot development hinged on a late in the book rule "clarification" by Zoe, the needlessly midriff-bearing eponymous fairy about the magical properties of size-changing spells. With magic like this, there is little suspense remaining as to who will win this battle between Team Fairy and Team Goblin, who clearly did not bring their A-team. The appeal of this book? maybe its tightly (in the chronological sense) plotted action that felt like it developed in real time during the few minutes it took to get through the book. There were also plentiful funny images of Team Goblin which were a highlight for me. So, a quick and easy read, but fairly low on the literary merit scale.

Positives: multiple mentions of the importance of safety gear when skating; pivotal role of doughnuts in the resolution of the plot.

Negatives: Just not very good.

It is the best book, like the others ones I've read. I want to read them all.

Rachel and Kristy go to a roller skating rink. There, they find Zoe the Skating Fairy. She's missing her magical skate lace. They find a group of boys who are skating really well. Then, Kristy notices that they are goblins because she sees their green noses. The goblins have the skating lace. They're practicing for the skating relay in the Fairy Olympics. They're using the lace as the baton to pass to each other. Kristy comes up with a plan. Rachel eats a donut from the donut stand and shows the goblin. He goes to get his own donut and Zoe makes Kristy look like a goblin so she can take the goblins place and grab the magic lace. Kristy gets the lace and skates away with it. The goblins were surrounding her when they noticed it was Kristy. Zoe quickly turns her into a fairy so she can fly away from them.

Still enjoying this little series of books with my six year old.

Lark says

ok, let me just start off by saying.. ZOE THE SKATING FAIRY IS AND ALWAYS WILL BE THE BEST FAIRY IN ALL OF THE RAINBOW MAGIC FAIRY BOOKS EVER!!!!!! ok now that I got that off my chest.... yeah ok Zoe is really cool, and I'm not just saying that because her name is Zoe... she is really great and yup that pretty much sums up the whole book.

The Sporty Fairies (U.S name: Sports Fairies) are the 9th series. The Sporty Fairies are responsible for making sure that everyone in fairy land and the human world have fun playing sports. They each have a magic item (related to their sport) and when the goblins steal them this makes sports more difficult for everyone. Not good when the Fairyland Olympics are due to start and kids everywhere are on school holidays.

There are seven Sporty fairies and they are: Helena the Horseriding Fairy, Francesca the Football Fairy, Zoe the Skating Fairy, Naomi the Netball Fairy, Samantha the Swimming Fairy, Alice the Tennis Fairy and Gemma the Gymnastics Fairy.

Action takes place around Tippington Town with Kirsty staying with Rachel.

Zoe the skating fairy lost her magic lace and Rachel and Kirsty helped her find it.

This was the first fairy book I ever read! I don't enjoy the series much now- way too easy- but I was obsessed when I was six years old.

If you know any young girl and have to get her a present, I highly recommend these books.

Maisie says

These books are beyond simple and easy, but the girls are obsessed with them. My kindergartner is now having me read them to her, because the older girls keep talking about them. They've really given the girls something easy to read, and they've brought the characters into their imaginative play.

This is the third book of seven in the Sports Fairies series by the group of authors who go by the name Daisy Meadows. It's a fun series, especially for young girls who are starting to read chapter books. Our oldest is addicted and will often read several in one day! This series has a sports theme and I like that it encourages girls to be active and try new sports.

I have read so many of these books that I must admit I've become immune to their silliness. I love that I can read them after she does and discuss the plots and her thoughts about the story and about what will happen next in the series. We will certainly read more of these books as long as they are still being written. I will always be thankful that this is one series that helped her to develop a love for reading.

May 2012 update: our youngest is now immersing herself in this series and is reading them very quickly, too. As inane as I thought they were, I love that this series is making readers of our girls. Hooray!
