Shhhhh Ahhhhh says

Dual psionics! Also good on Davis for getting out of the Pyramid for the first time in almost an eon. Interesting that they only just now got knife shields. That's one of the things that sort of irks me about the trailblazers. They seem extensively incurious about their own powers. I know if it was me, I'd be wondering what kind of stuff I could do with it. Like, can you develop psionics to the point where you can independently manipulate genetics without technological aid? Can you use it to change other people's minds, not by directly hacking them but monitoring and introducing stimulus until you can get a formula? Man, they are wasting opportunities out here!

More cyclical structure. The Word is replaced by yet another Small Bad while we keep racking up Big Bads that don't seem to show any probability of being eliminated, though I like the leveraging of one of the species in the ADZ on the alternate front. It allows them to defeat that enemy without attracting attention directly to SF. I get the sneaking suspicion that one of these species is going to rat them out to the dinos though.

This is fun

Book had so slow spots but mostly fast and or very entertaining. Being 12 books in I don't know how the author is still coming up with this stuff.

Don't eat the meat

No to religion, marriage, family or previously known structure. OK enough of that. Good solid reading. A bit more proof reading prior to publishing needed but not overly distracting.

I'm so addicted to this series.
