Second chances These 2 are a mess. My only thing is that its all over the place and at times its contradicting. Oh and How Lola and Tatum did not cat fight I mean come on. I would've been throwing down. Now Jason and Tatum so much left there. Plus all this stuff Lola wanted her friend to look up on everyone nothing came back on Tatum. Pieces seem to be missed I get when Co writing you got link together. Chad was so I love her and just let her go to his friend.

Chad and Lola they married as kids by the swingset. Her parents never liked him. After running away from Chad and the pics she got of him with someone else. Lola is now about to marry another man who isn't who she thought he was either. The things with secrets if you don't confront them you will never know the truth.

Lola has enough of running and finally going to face the truth head on even if it means running into the only guy she ever loved and seeing he moved on.

Years after she broke him. Shes back and he can't let her back in. She will destroy what little he has left. Her rich folks thought he was trash and he is at his lowest trying to fight his way back. Everyone has failed him. Even his own father who has been trying to help all this time. Its his time to move on be happy.

Can you forgive and forget

" Does he know our little secret? Tell him or I'll tell the first tabloid I find."

"There's no 'I love you but', Chad. You either love me and you're all in, or you don't and I'm all out."

"Promise are the sweetest like Chad, don't promise me things."

"She brings out the worst in me and pokes the devil on my shoulder until he spits fire every time."

"You see Lola, that's the thing, I can't fucking unlove you either. You're in my veins, a part of me I can't remove. The only way I could let you go is to bleed out and die."

Wow what an amazing read. These two authors are epic together.

The story is based on two characters- Chad and Lola. Both characters are strong and feisty. It did take me a while to like Lola.

Their story is angsty with some surprises. I really enjoyed it and read it in one sitting. I'm really looking forward to reading more from these authors.

I loved this book! Ashleigh and Eva knock it out of the damn park!!! It had me hooked from page 1!

GAH!!! Chad and Lola are fucken magic! Before I can gush about what a freaken hunk Chad is, I have to give praise to my girl Lola...SHE IS BY FAR THE MOST BADASS HEROINE I'VE EVER READ!!! That girl had me standing up and clapping for her during certain scenes! I adore her!

Chad is really damaged he has been through a lot. What I like about him is that we see him sort of evolve from this damaged character into someone we can be proud of throughout the book.

Ash and Eva have taken their writing to a whole new level. They balance each other out perfectly and we can see just how much Ash's writing has grown with this book! It was phenomenal. We see just how much effort and research has gone into this book as well because we can feel just how real Chad's career is...we can feel the boxing in his blood.

I think Lola balances Chad out...they suit each other...their love story had me on my toes because of how intense things got between them!

This book has it all...a slow burn love story, a secret that makes your jaw fall open and a shiny asshole that gets what's coming to him!!! And mehn is it sweet when he gets his due! This is by far my favourite book by Ashleigh and Eva...I really hope you will give Chad and Lola a chance.

The only thing I will say is that this book left me wanting more. I wish there was a bit more to the ending and that we got more chapters into Chad and Lola's past. Other than that everything else was perfect. The storyline, the writing style...everything delievers!

Bad boy Chad really got under my skin. Boxer turned MMA fighter this story gripped my attention from beginning to end. A second chance romance with so many elements that are trying to keep him and Lola apart. Will just their magnetic chemistry win this fight and or are are their deeper ties that will ultimately let them have their HEA? No spoilers from me - recommend you one clicking to find out!

Melanie (mells_view) says

With the devil on my lips I breath him into the storm raging inside.

This was a good read. The couple in this story are chaos personified. If you're looking for a sweet and sugary romance, then this is not it. If you're looking for a violent hurricane of emotions, then Sucker Punch is definitely the one for you. I would consider this a fighter romance, but also a second chance romance as well.

The only downfall with this read was that there did seem to be a very choppy/confusing timeline at the beginning. It starts to work itself out later on, but at first I was definitely flipping pages back to make sure I was reading things right. All in all it was good though.

Di Covey says

4.25 Stars!

Second Chance, Angsty Romance!

I wanted to throw my kindle while reading this one. For reals. It's a slow burn of drama, dilemma, and whiplash. It's like a train wreck you can't help but watch. Chad is one helluva alpha a-hole, but I was rooting for him. Lola gives him a run for his money. The push and pull was off the charts! God, would you two fight in bed, please. I was smashing my kindle in hopes. A messy ride from start to finish, you'll not know what to expect, trust me.

I didn't like the Tatum situation, can't tell you the whole reason why, but I feel that things ended abruptly and I was left with little, to no answers. I caught glimpses into some of the characters, I'd like a story from a few of them too. All in all this book was very unexpected and it sure did throw in a few punches I wasn't prepared for, but the pain was almost as good as the pleasure. I couldn't turn the pages fast enough!

Tricia Bartley (iScream Books) says

Chad King: "Here I am, in my dank, almost condemned apartment, waiting for her to come back to me. What a joke. My family does have a point though, I do need to get my shit together."

And if Chad doesn't get his shit together, he will have to go to prison. Chad has to do community service for 5 years. He is a boxer turned MMA fighter and he found himself in a bit of hot water..well... how bout a lot of hot water. lol He now has to teach anger management boxing classes in his families gym to stay out of prison.

Soo yeahh, you could say Chad has hit rock bottom. He pretty much lost everything...even HER!!!

Of course as he is trying to get his life back together, there are obstacles in his way. Chad even meets a new girl that he feels is the one!!! But...Then SHE comes back into his life and turns everything upside down.

Y'all, I sooo love me a MMA book! They are always full of excitement and lots of frustrated tension...lol Ohhh and of course full of D R A M A Soo yess Sucker Punch is definitely full of ALL that!! It kept me turning those pages dying to know what was going to happen next!!

I gave Sucker Punch 4.5 iScream Cones!! Make sure you pick up on release day and find out what the Hell I am being so vague about...lol Soo good!!!

Fab read by an awesome duo! These two really do have that special something that makes their writing stand out in a crowd.

The story is full of secrets, angst, ups and downs, tears and smiles. It truly has got it all.

Both lead characters have got attitude galore, they both give as good as they get. They are an imperfectly prefect couple.

There are quite a few sidelines and the story stretches far and wide, lots of side characters involved and people interfering. Its a lot to follow at times but it also makes for a really page turning read.

Sucker Punch is different to Ashleigh's previous book but I must say it's my favorite.

This book is about second chances, love found and then lost.

Chad and Lola have loved each other since they were six, but with unaccepting, manipulative parents the two are torn apart. Years have passed and Chad whom is a MMA fighter learns of Lola's engagement and becomes enraged and is fueled by hate, he finally decides he's happy with Tatum, until Lola come crashing back into his life. I found Tatum to be extremely annoying and was rooting for Chad and Lola.

I loved the banter between the two, along with their love hate relationship. Its gritty, complicated and full of angst.

This book contains sexy MMA fighters, love, revenge and so much more.

Great read

Amber- Leave Me Alone I'm Reading says

I fucking loved this book! It had me tied in knots from the very beginning, and I couldn't put it down. It's sexy, angsty, suspenseful, and action-packed. But the best thing about Sucker Punch is the total kick-ass main characters. Chad and Lola are a-mazing! I just love them and their history together. I highly recommend this book, especially if you're into second-chance and/or fighter romance!

Susan says

This was a fantastic Fighter romance story. I've read a previous book by these two Authors and I love them writing together.

Chad King had it all the love of his life Lotus Shaw and his boxing. Life was good, he was happy. Then it was all gone in the blink of an eye. He lost everything and now he's trying to work his way back to the top.

When Lotus unexpectedly walks back into Chads life he's eventually moved on but one look at her and he's knocked on his A$$.

But Chad is bitter and wants to hurt Lotus for hurting him. Lotus is just as angry as Chad. These two have unresolved issues.

I absolutely loved Chad he's just a big ball of testosterone wrapped rage. You kind of want to poke the Beast just to see him snap.

This fighter is just as ruthless outside of the ring as he is in it. But Lotus is no push over this chick can hold her own.

For these two the fight is on and the gloves are off.

Chad and Lola are explosive they don't hold anything back. They'll make you want to rip your fuxxing hair out. I honestly wanted to throat punch both of them at times. Things are messy, gritty and definitely complicated. But this book keeps you so engrossed you won't be tapping out before the end that's for sure.

Lis Garcia says

I felt sucker punched by this story.(in a good way) It started out a little slow for me and then POW everything starts happening and you are like "oh, sh*t!" Chad and Lola. There is no denying their strong attraction and love they have for each other, but life has so many obstacles for them to over come. Between new loves, lies, deceit, steamy attractions, scandals and trying to win fights, can their love take the biggest punch of all? Read it to find out.

I did feel like there were some unanswered questions with Tatum and the additional info that Lola requested, but all in all this is a great read. Ashleigh and Eva make a great writing pair.

Can't wait for their next story together.

Karen - Kazza's Books Blog and Reviews says

Ashleigh and Eva have collaborated together again and have give us this fantastic book 'Sucker Punch'. It's about a M.M.A fighter and fighting and clean but oh so dirty fight but more importantly it's about love, revenge, forgiveness, but most of all fighting for what you truly want. Grabbing the brass ring and running with it.

These characters drew me into their life and sent me on one hell of an angsty ride. Chad is one hell of an asshole but that in itself makes him one exciting character to read and Lola definitely puts him through the wringer. Throw in a third character, Tatum, and boom, watch the power struggle begin.

Rhiannon Hall says

Ashleigh & Eva sure are a great team, they have yet again written a book together that is an awesome read.

Sucker punch is a 5* second chance/angst book that is a kind of a slow burn but so worth it, it takes place in the boxing/mma world with great main characters that I really enjoyed getting to know and some characters I want to know more about. I won't go into detail about the book as I prefer to go into a book not knowing too much about it but it's definitely a 5* star book worth reading.
