Meg Stoltzfus and her sister Ellie attended tonight's singing with their friends, including one man from another church district, Reuben Miller, whom Meg had set her eye on from the first moment she met him, over two years ago.

Peter watched Meg leave with a sick heart. Even after all these years, he couldn't forget what she'd said to him after she'd overheard him talking with his brother about her. He'd thought they were friends, and he'd hoped for more.

This is a fun Christmas Amish read.

Susan says

Sweet book, quick read. Meg is so stubborn, and Peter doesn't even have any idea what he's done! She should have at least told him what was wrong. They're seeing people that are all wrong for them.

Anne says

Fun, sweet Amish love story.
