Today I had the honor (and luck) to meet the author of this beautifully written Poem Book at our local book store. She was absolutely wonderful and sweet!

As soon as I got home, I immediately jumped onto my bed and into this book.

Though a short book of poems, I liked that I felt like I was on a journey with this Author. I could relate to some of the things she was feeling, and could imagine what she felt while writing certain passages.

Some her words were so moving and i could feel a sense of relief of seeing what I was feeling written down on paper.

I think my favorite poem of this book was "One Syllable"

I re-read this poem at least five times through and could still not look away from this page. I don't know what it was about this poem, but it left me feeling speechless.

So, to Lily Clarisa, keep writing your beautiful poems, and keep being humble and charming, it made reading your book all that much sweeter! Thank you for your sweet message and for signing my book. Good luck with any future writing projects and I wish you luck and all the best! Keep on writing!
