Taylor Troncin says

Loved this series when I was younger. Still a huge animal lover and would like to read the rest of this series!

Baluka says

When I first started this series when I was a child, I really loved the books. Going back, I see how I've changed with my taste in literature. This book wasn't bad; it was just okay. A child reading it would love it, especially if they have a fondness for animals. It wasn't bland, but just didn't appeal to me. Would I recommend this book to someone, yes. This writer is good, but it's just not quite my taste anymore.

Suchita says

I thought that this book was really good because, as I love animals, I learned a lot and I thought the storyline was really good too. I recommend this book to all animal and cat lovers.

In this book, Mandy and James go to Jersey with Mandy's parents, who are substituting for the vets in Jersey. They meet a cat at the shop next door to the clinic. Mandy is sure that the cat should enter the contest. She might even win! But her owner might need a little bit of persuading to let her enter.
