Memphis Lights Bella Jewel

Memphis Reign is America's biggest country music star. He's gorgeous, he's talented, and he's dark. Music is his life. It's his escape. It's his drug. Girls? Who needs them. Feelings? They only cause pain. Memphis has lived by that rule for a long time, just enjoying the company of random strangers, that is until he meets Ember.

Ember Skye is the last person in the world Memphis would ever see himself ending up with. She's gorgeous, feisty and her life is perfect. She has the perfect family, the perfect friends and the perfect job. She's never really understood pain, so how could she ever understand him?

Yet he's drawn to her. There's something about her that has him by the heart strings. She's awaking something deep inside him.

She's giving him a reason to fight again.

Fight to breathe.

Fight to live.

Hell, fight to love.

But what if his demons are too much for her?

What if she runs and leaves him where he started...Utterly broken.
