Modern Philosophy Roger Ariew (Editor) , Eric Watkins (Editor)

The leading anthology of writings of the modern period, Modern Philosophy provides the key works of seven major philosophers, along with a rich selection of associated texts by other leading thinkers of the period, chosen to deepen the reader's understanding of modern philosophy and its relationship to the natural sciences. Building on the strengths of the first edition, the second edition of Modern Philosophy is enhanced by the addition of the following selections: Montaigne, Apology for Raymond Sebond, "The Senses Are Inadequate" ; Newton, Principia, "General Scholium," and Optics, "Query 31"; Hume, Dialogues Concerning Natural Religion, Parts 1-5 and 9-12; Reid, Inquiry Into Human Mind , Conclusion, and Essays on the Intellectual Powers of Man, "Of Judgment,"chap. 2, Of Common Sense

Morris Yen says

read this for my modern philosophy course overall a good selection of materials to understand modern philosophy (I suppose) nice to have introductions for each author to better understand their backgrounds

Grasped in Thought says

Great anthology of the relevant works by the 'modern philosophers' (Descartes through Kant). If you don't feel like spending the money on the individual works, but still want to get acquainted with these famous thinkers, this anthology is worth buying.

Jeff says

good reference. has all the biggies in one spot.
then again, reference is boring most of the time, and not as nice as tiny books.

Jg says

Does anyone have a copy of the e text I can't find it anywhere.
