I wish this was longer, and now I gotta see if there is a prequel...lol

Xander is a Vampire KIng. Lisette is his human lover....

His mother is a in a rage over his human lover and the discovery of her husband (his fathers) unfaithfulness and the discovery of his illegitimate child Alex. He is 14 and has not yet turned ....

Xander can be oblivious about his lover and her tolerance of his activities. He loves her so completely that he would not think of cheating...however.... when at a later time she spins the facts on her having the same freedom.. suddenly he sees her side....which was glorious!

It was a good story... and Lisette is the first female I have identified with in a long time... xander keeps 10 "donors" a pack of slutty women whom live in his house and they are all women he used to have sex with and when he feeds from them... they writhe allover him and orgasm... I can see her point! Yeah Lissy is not taking that too well and it is a hot spot in their relationship...along with his mothers hatred, and his mommy's boy issues.... I really adored the story!

really enjoyed this short story!

This was actually really cute and funny. Lissette doesn't take no shit and Xander is hilariously arrogant. There's a really great "come to Jesus" moment, too. Love those.

Quite an enjoyable quickie!

Very very good

I liked this short story. I like Lauren's books, she has very strong and sassy heroines, alpha male heroes that make her books good to read.
