Memoirs of a Hamster Devin Scillian , Tim Bowers (Illustrator)

Night 1 / My life is perfect. / I have a bowl full of seeds, a cozy pile of wood shavings, and room to run. / I'm never leaving here. / Question: Who's the luckiest hamster in the world? / Answer: ME! Seymour the hamster has the perfect life. He has a spacious cage, a constant food supply, and a FuzzyBoy 360 exercise wheel that lets him run to his heart's content. Life could not be better. Or could it? When Pearl the cat tells Seymour of the goodies beyond the safe confines of his cage, he starts to think he's missing out. And out is the new in! It's only after Seymour is out of his cage that he begins to fully appreciate his safe and cozy home.

Christina says

I was afraid of the volume of text in this book. Wasn't sure it would hold the attention of my five year old. I did not need to worry. A fantastic story. Lots of drama. Will the poor hamster be rescued??!

Emily says

This would be a great springboard for a conversation on contentment; why we have rules from God to live by. They are for our good.

Nichole says

Absolutely adorable! Hilarious view of what a hamster might think all night!

Amy says

Set up like a journal - would be great to teach journal writing, personal narratives, etc.

Peacegal says

Fans of "The Secret Life of Pets" will love this little book. Encourages kids to see things from a pet's point of view. Wonderful, Disneyesque illustrations.

Carolanne says

Absolutely adorable from the cover on in...

Rebekah says

SOOOOOOOO CUTE!!!!

---

Carly says

So cute! The kids loved this story!

---

Tracy J Hora says

Didn't think it was nearly as good as the others.

---

Brigitte Brulz says

Cute and funny story told from the perspective of a little hamster obsessed with yogurt drops who learns to be content with what he has. The yogurt drops aren't always as plentiful on the outside!

Kathryn Bergeron says

This book wasn't my favorite. I mean, it was fine. It's moral didn't seem very good, and it wasn't well written enough to overcome a poor moral.

Beth says

I can see using this book along with MEMOIRS OF A GOLDFISH to have kids write their own "Memoirs of a..." stories.

Donna Mork says

Cute story of a hamster, done in diary format. The cat lies and says the stairs are made of sunflower seeds, so the hamster gets out to check it out. Turns out the cat is a big fat liar and the hamster thinks he's doomed. But just when things look their worst, he is rescued by his owner and she gives him a kiss. He hates kisses, but suddenly doesn't mind them too much.

I just had the genuine pleasure of reading this book to my kids. We loved every second of it. The story is hysterical and fun and the illustrations are both gorgeous and adorable. I will be donating a copy to my kids' classrooms soon. I really can't recommend this enough to anyone with young kids or who is just young at heart. Can you tell I loved it? It makes me want to write a picture book myself.
