Ailis and the Beast by Jennifer Barlowe

'Soul Kisses' by Angela Knight - Beth Chase & Morgan & Garret Axton [2 male vampire cousins] (Beth is the sister of Valerie, who married vampire Cade in a previous book. She's kidnapped by an evil vampire & rescued by the two cousins.)

'Temptation in Time' by Alexa Aames - Ariana & sorcerer Marcus de Grey (She escapes the Middle Ages after stealing a kiss of magic from him; he kidnaps her & returns w/her to the 14th century.)

'Ailis and the Beast' - Ailis & Varden the Beast (she agrees to be the virginal sacrifice to the Beast)

'Night Heat' by Leigh Wyndfield - Rip Bowhite & healer Jemma (he leads a revolt on a prison planet)

Okay - kind of smarmy title. But the short stories were really good. All four of them were good enough I would have a read a full length novel. I guess this was Alexa Aames and Jennifer Barlow's first published story. The other two were Angela Knight - one of my favorites - and Leigh Wyndfield. Four different settings but so good. Totally would recommend this book.

Hilly says

3.5 stars. Rounded up for Temptation in Time by Alexa Aames.

I probably read this while I was looking for more books by Angela Knight, but as I'm not a fan of vampires (or werewolves, demons, angels and their ilk), I wasn't particularly interested in her story in this anthology.

Alexa Aames's story, on the other hand, was a nice surprise.

Overall, a very good anthology. I LOVED "Temptation in Time" by Alexa Aames - a great time travel romance, with "Night Heat" by Leigh Wyndfield, coming in a close 2nd. "Soul Kisses" by Angela Knight was a solid read while I found "Ailis and the Beast" by Jennifer Barlowe disappointing.

Jacquelyn Frank says

Based on Angela Knight alone. And that's not just sucking up. I am a fan girl long before I ever became a contemporary.
