Ghetto Love Sonovia Alexander

Pam is almost to her breaking point. She has a love and hate type relationship with everyone she's in contact with including her three children. She knows that she hasn't been the perfect mother, but due to unfortunate circumstances in her life with her children's father, she tends to take her anger out on the ones that love her the most.

Lisa is Pam's twin sister and the total opposite. She's also the mother of three children and finds herself taking the fall for her sister due to mistaken identity. Knowing that her sister has always envied her, she finds out a few secrets that have been kept from her and the rest of the family.

Ghetto Love is the true meaning of love and hate. Hating a person one day, ready to stab them in the back then waking up to them the next day as if nothing happened. Take a look into the world of these twins and find out how this love and hate relationship turns out.

From Reader Review Ghetto Love for online ebook

Tanya Deloatch says

Is it really love?!

After reading part one in this series, readers will certainly wonder. Action, drama, list and unexpected twists and turns keeps readers on the edge waiting to see what happens next!

---

Porche Patton says

Smh, who edited this story.

Very confusing, I didn't know who was talking when and a lot of misspelled words and way to many characters. The editor needs to be replaced. Even tho , grammatical it was horrible the storyline was good enough for me to keep reading. A lot of unnecessary drama tho.

Emquegee says

So many typos

Terrible story. Terrible flow. Too many characters. I literally just finished and can't remember the point of the book. It just wasn't good at all. I am lucky I got it free or else I'd be mad I paid for this.

Shoulanda August says

Unbelievable!!!!

Unbelievable!!!!

I was hooked from the very beginning. How can a woman have her own children father killed. This story was full of twists and turns that I couldn't put it down. Her three daughters never wanted for nothing but didn't have a mother that truly loved them. There needs to be a part 2. Five stars!!!!!!!

Teaguem2005 says

Pam was a wiiiiild chick who had absolutely, positively, no filter whatsoever! She threatened to knock out teeth, put foot to azz & everything else on a regular basis...and that's talking to her teen daughters. She has three daughters and so does her twin sister Lisa. Pam us mixed up so many things it's hard to imagine her being a professional, lol. Not sure where the "love" fits into the title but "ghetto" is certainly apropos.

Story could use some editing for numerous grammatical errors.

Nikki Trotter says

This was actually a good book, but it had to many errors for me.

Jasmine Cole says

Really

I can't believe Pam she anit shit and the kids I feel sorry for all them dang I hope they work it out

---

Queena Harper says

Very good

This book is good, it have grammatical errors but they can be looked over. I have to read the next one to see what happens next.

Denise Gilliam says

This was my first time reading anything from this author. I read this book really quick because it kept my attention. I knew 2 he I first read the first page I liked it. Pam was a hot damn mess and do were her damn daughter's. Angel seem to be do sweet. I don't understand why the author didn't say why Pam was so damn messy. I really enjoyed this book. I'm going to read part 2 because I'm trying to figure out what happened next anything is possible dealing with Pam messy ass.

Authoress Hurricane says

OMG!

Snow you did that, I'm sitting on these of my seat barely able to get this out. Rushing to get to part two. On that note I'm out!

Renée Williams says

I started reading it so I had to finish it. I really was not feeling this book. The author just seems to be all over the place with her story line. To me it just did not make sense to have so much profanity from the grandmother all the way down to the children. It seems there would have been a voice of reason in all of this gets old drama. In the end I am truly glad I did not have to pay for this book and it only cost me my time.

LaTonya Mullins-Mobley says

No LOVE in this ghetto!

I chose this rating because as the saying goes, "It is what it is", and that is five *. I know the book title is in total opposite of the whole story. The family of Pam and Lisa seemed to have NO love nor respect for each other. The way Pam talks to her daughter s is hard enough to believe and then she has the audacity to pimp them out. "Outrageous" does not have enough letters in it to describe this "trick"! This is certainly a page turner and Big Kudos to Sonovia Alexander. I have no doubt that the next book in the trilogy will be even spicier than the first. I plan to buy it and I recommend to anyone who loves to read a great Urban Tale should do the same. Enjoy....

Gina Harris says

WOW!!!!

The story line was good but there were lots of grammatical errors and skipped words in the book! The whole damn family was GHETTO as hell! They were all ruthless, crazy and full of drama.

---

Diamond Drake says

The grammar and punctuation errors were insane!

Kitani says

That chick Pam is crazy!!! She's very shellfish and clearly doesn't care about anyone but herself. And the way she talks to the kids and pulling a gun on one. She gets no respect whatsoever for any of that. I enjoyed the book even though I wish it was longer to answer a few more unanswered questions. Guess it's time for me to get Part 2 to see what other nonsense these ghetto people have going on.
