Emmy Lou says

One of Kyo's former team mates transfers schools and exposes her secret to Chiharu. Now the two can't even look at each other, and Chiharu says he can't live with Kyo anymore. What's Kyo to do?

Treasure says

This one at least had a full story, unlike vol. 2's disappointment. The arrival of Kyo's friend Tsuyaka results in Chiharu finding out that Kyo is a girl and the reader is left at the end wondering how Kyo and Chiharu are going to resolve things between them. It is a necessary and anticipated event, but I felt that Tsuyaka's betrayal was unexpected, unfounded, and rude-- it felt like a plot device and not really a genuine part of the story.

Chelsea says

This volume was really good. This volume brings a new character into the series from Kyo's past. This was a really good volume. The bonus "Girl Got Game Meeting - Round One" at the end of the volume was also pretty fun.

Kereesa says

I really enjoyed this volume, mostly because the stakes got much, much higher for Kyo, and we finally got to the end of 'is he or isn't he?' arc thing that's been going on.

4.5/5

Selsara 'Misfil' says

Tsuyaka udah kayak kuntilanak .____.
Horor tapi malah bikin lucu.

Masih suka sama ceritanya sejauh ini.
Bacaan yang menyegarkan, bikin senyum senyum bacanya.
