I received this book free through Goodreads First Reads. My four youngest children are 12, 10, 4, and 2. There are three girls and the youngest is a boy. I watched all four of them reading this book together. They were oohing and aahing at the possibilities. They've chosen projects, gathered supplies, and are inspired. The illustrations are beautiful. The text is easy to follow. Looking forward to creating with my children.

This brightly colored book is full of photos and step-by-step instructions for making fun, fancy and frilly bows. You will wow your friends with these cute creations! I received this book through Goodreads First Reads and I really like book. I am not good at making ribbons and bows and things like that, but this was very helpful. My mom makes bows, amongst other things and she also really liked this book because it showed both of us new and different things and ways of doing things!

It was a great book and I definitely recommend it to anyone that is crafty!

I have already recommended it to other people because I have liked it so much. I have a list of everything to get to start making the bows and ribbons!
