Rebecca Rash says

Better than the first, some is a bit classic, but enjoyable.

Jeneane Denger says

Excellent. I read the entire series.

Jennifer says

Enthralling

I want to be invited to a Rocklin family reunion! The reader can't help but fall in love with all of the characters. You mourn deaths and celebrate births. It seems as if you really get to experience the horrors of the Civil War beyond the fighting. I could read 29 books in this series!

Elaine Atkins says

Great book.

I enjoyed reading this. As with most Morris books, it is somewhat predictable. Yet, the story during the Civil War was interesting.

Sandy says

Excellent book in this saga!

Lea Lewis says

Excellent series. I love history, especially that related to the South. This saga takes one through a gamete of emotions - laughed, cried, and drop-jawed at what was said and done. The characters were wonderful, Gilbert Morris's writing hooked me from the get-go. I absolutely recommend to anyone who is a lover of American history the entire collection of Appomattox Saga.

Roxanne saysHistorical fiction at its best!

The Civil War era is one of my favorite to read. The author delivers a wonderful blend of history, romance and drama that is inspirational. This book continues to follow the Rocklins as their lives unfold in Virginia during the Civil War. Now on to Saga 3,

Carrie Brown says

Gilbert Morris is an author who knows how to keep his readers riveted and wanting more.

Deborah K Van Loan saysIncredible

I cannot recall enjoying anything as much as these beautiful Christian sagas. Mr. Morris, well done. I look forward to the sequel.

JMBooher saysWOW

What a series.

Every flick (page turn) I did not want it to end!
Loved every thing about this family, so real!!
