Evelyn says

Riiko's parents met Night and it...didn't go as well as it could because Night's an idiot. Also, we got some drama coming up with an old crush and a strange kid.

Let's just say things get really messy.

This series has 6 volumes.

Renée says

Why is that in Japan being drugged and waking up in bed with a stranger, who tells you that you had sex with him and you remember nothing doesn't qualify as rape? Really she's all worried that she slept with this guy she doesn't know while I'm thinking ummmm RAPE????

Ginger Woods says

I am dying right now, just totally DYING lol.

OKay so having a new model come bother Riiko as a test run was mean, but it was hilarious.

BUT TINY night?!?! OMG he was so effin adorable!! SO Freakin cute! I want a tiny night :D

Michelle says

Oh my goodness! I think this volume made me laugh out loud the most times! So much hilarity!

And I was just starting to lean towards Team Soshi but then Night returned (even if he is mini right now xD) and still cute as ever and I am mixed again T^T I know how Riiko feels even if I don't agree that it's fair to Soshi or Night (even if he's not human).. agh I wonder how this will end and if it'll be a somehow happy ending for all three!

Samantha wickedshizuku Tolleson says

This volume starts off with Chapter 19:First Love.

I'll write more when my editing mode hits.

Happy Readings!

Yuu Watase continues to entertain and amuse readers in volume four of this highly enjoyable manga rom/com! Things become rather complicated for Riiko Izawa. Just as her relationship with Night seems to have normalized, her very first crush shows up, and seems to interest her more than Night! But then, people aren't always who they seem to be. Things become so complicated that Soshi Asamoto begins to wonder about how normal Night is. And then, there is the most amazing and amusing plot twist ever! This really is a must read series!

Beck says

Interesting things again, and I especially like how Soshi is ramping up his game.

I found the author sidenotes a bit more interesting in this one, although probably just for personal reasons.

Nicole Bunge says

Finally we find out a littl emore baout Gaku- the nutty salesman from Kronos Heaven. Frankly, I'm happy I gave up on Shojo Beat, and any type of 'monthly' instalments. It REALLY helps to have the author comment columns when it comes to this.

The author is very... silly. Imaginative as hell, but silly. At least you know that going in, because she tells you there's no logic to what she decided for the plot. It's escapism. The end.

Amanda [Novel Addiction] says

Another series I'm grateful that Goodreads suggested to me. And I didn't realize that I was already familiar with this author/illustrator! I loved, loved, loved Alice 19th and Fushigi Yugi: The Mysterious Play, so it's no surprise this series is excellent as well.

And honestly, I'm not sure who I'm rooting for more, Night or Soshi.

Leila Anani says

This volume introduces another guy into the tive triangle as if things weren't complicated enough! Riiko meets Toshiki her first crush from elementary school who now seems bent on being her boyfriend as well!

At first I just thought OMG this is getting silly but when you find out who Toshiki really is it all begins to make sense.

Shojo manga at its finest. thumbs up.

Kristen says

SO convoluted and ridiculous. I think I only like Gaku now. I kind of want to drop it, tbh. Can I just fast-forward to the end and see if she chooses Soshi?

Dani - Perspective of a Writer says

I'm a little uncomfortable how much of this story is about Riiko having sex with Night. Still the story twists are so smart and inventive!

Loved learning about Yuki and Toshiki. Night is hurt, nooooooo!

BOTTOM LINE: Still fluffy and still bringing delightful cliffhangers!

Kathleen says

Another guy makes a play for Riiko's affections (and her body.) It's strange that a plotline about attempted rape, which I found completely terrible in Ai Ore!, could be rendered so much more palatable here. I think the humor helps, and the greater amount of realism in the characters' feelings.

Kat (idangerous) says

tell me the next one is better? This one was....* ***** slaps the taller guy on cover* says it all lol
