Aurélie Knit & Read says

L'intérêt principal de ce manga ne réside pas dans le dessin, qui n'a jamais été très beau et a mal vieilli. Mais l'intrigue ! Oh l'intrigue ! Impossible de ne pas accrocher à ce récit qui fait sans arrêt la navette entre 2 espaces-temps mystérieusement liés. Amours, trahisons, vengeance et machinations à gogo... On a envie de savoir que sont devenus les uns et les autres, qui a fait quoi dans le passé et comment cela affecte le présent de nos personnages au Japon.
Un classique du Shojo que j'ai adoré de bout en bout.

The story starts to go into Shion's past in this volume, and features some of the most memorable scenes from the anime. The anime adaptation, from what I remember, also ends close to the last 20 pages or so of this manga volume....looking forward to reading the continuation of the story!

A heartbreaking entry in the series, trading action for reflection. We learn more about Shion's life and how he became the man Rin remembers being. I actually think this was handled better in the anime, but it's still fantastic in comic-form. Ohhhhhh, Lazlo & Kyaa! Why?!?
