The Cuckoo Child Katie Flynn

When Dot McCann, playing relieveio with her pals, decides to hide in Butcher Rathbone's almost empty dustbin, she overhears a conversation which could send one man to prison and the other to the gallows - and suddenly finds herself in possession of stolen goods. Dot lives with her aunt and uncle, the cuckoo in the nest, abandoned to these relatives when her parents die. She knows she is unwanted but this teaches her independence so, when she realises one of the thieves suspects her, has no hesitation in leaving her aunt's home to fend for herself. She tells no one her secret until she meets up with Corky, who has run away from a London orphan asylum. The two join forces and are befriended by Alby, who owns a canal boat. This is fortunate because Dot soon realises they are being followed...Set in Liverpool in the 1920s/1930s The Cuckoo Child is vintage Katie Flynn.

Crap. Avoid.

Pauline says

Another nice easy read by this author.

Cara Byrne says

I like an easy read. Not too taxing on the brain and straight into some action. No boring introductions. Based in 1920's Liverpool. Not too keen on the title. I feel the author could have thought up something more interesting or something to do with the actual plot but apart from that, very enjoyable.

Sarah says

An enjoyable read, with an element of being in the right (or wrong) place and a dose of suspense too.
