Julie says

A bit too jokey, casual for me.

Marnie says

My whole group really liked this study and we hope to do another one by Jen Hatmaker in the next year.

Janet says

haven't finished it yet but has not kept my attention enough to, I imagine I will go back to it someday.

Someday is not today.

Joni Hartman says

Since I read this book, I have found out a little more about Jen Hatmaker, the author. Unfortunately, from some of her comments recently, I cannot whole-heartedly recommend her as a person whose opinion I value. That said, my impression of the book, "Tune In", was favorable, and it gave me a lot of positive things to think about concerning prayer, how to know if God is speaking to you, fasting, worship, the work of the Holy Spirit, suffering, discipline, etc. It was a very interesting read, and included amusing anecdotes from Jen's life to illustrate the topic. I felt like the study brought me closer to God, in knowing Him personally, and in understanding His plan for me.

Kim says

Going through this study with my Bible study gal pals. It's really a great reminder to slow down and listen for the voice of God in my life!

Brennen says

I found a lot of good quotes in here.

Christa says

Great book for helping me slow down and not view time with God as something else to check off the to-do list.
