Rebecca says

Franklin Graham speaks in such plain, easy-to-understand language. I like the 30 day format, the use of scripture, and his obvious command perspective on the subject of who Jesus is, how He relates to us and us to Him, and the interaction of the Holy Spirit pointing to Jesus. Also, Graham helps one understand the absolute necessity of forgiveness freely given by God but not freely given by us.

Very good short devotional. Has 30 separate decos.

Just received in the mail after making a donation to Samaritan's Purse. Looking forward to reading.....
What an awesome devotional! Everyone should have a copy of this devotional. It's written so that everyone and anyone can understand that everything really is ALL FOR JESUS. The chapters are short, clear and to the point and there is a beautiful prayer at the end of each one. This is a devotional that I'm not going to put away - it'll stay out where I can grab it when I need to.....

Janet Cline says

excellent book. I will read it again next month and only read one chapter a day.

Dong Sin says

I think the book was amazing because it has great application. I can relate my daily life with the book as I put the words of God into practice. The book also has great prayers. I really enjoyed a section of the book from Ephesians 1:7 and Ephesians 4:32. In this section it states that we must forgive others just as Jesus has forgiven us for our sins. We are only forgiven of our sins if we forgive others. Jesus Christ has died for our sins and the sins of this world, through Him we could live unto righteousness. I would recommend this book to any Christian.

I received this as a free gift when visiting Samaritan's Purse headquarters in Boone, NC this past spring. I initially thought it would be a devotional with deep wording and thoughts, but I found it to be an easy reading with a great message and reminders that my life's focus should be "All for Jesus." I finished yesterday and sending it to my sister tomorrow...it is a book to be shared.

Great read

I didn't use the book as a devotional, I used it as a lesson book. There's a lot of good information in this little devotional
