Nine Months Beverly Barton

Grand Springs, Colorado, has seen its share of inclement weather, but a barrage of rainstorms and mud slides plunges the town into a 36-hour blackout and a state of emergency. The disaster has left Paige Summars stranded with Jared Montgomery, leading to a night of passion she would never forget--especially when she finds out that Jared is to be her new boss! But the biggest surprise is later sprung by Paige, when she announces to Jared that she is carrying his child.
