Volume 19: AHHH! It ends a crucial point. While I might know what's about to happen, It still keeps you hanging. Cannot wait to get my hands on the volume.

Volume 20: I cannot believe I never read manga before. I like it. This one is great like the rest.

Volume 21: It is coming to a climax!

Ever since picking up the very first volume of One Piece I have been addicted to reading it. There so much to enjoy like action, adventure, kick ass fight scenes, tug at your heart strings moments, brave heroes and wacky dispicable villians. One Piece is Gum Gum Awesome!

I think one reason why I like One Piece so much as a long-running shonen series is that it doesn't have a end goal that hovers over us (the readers) or the characters throughout the story. Yes, Luffy is trying the become King of the Pirates and to find the One Piece, but, to me, that feels like a "I want to be successful" kind of goal. This reasoning is also why I don't really care for Naruto or Bleach. Their end goals (N: defeat Akatsuki and get Sasuke back; B: defeat Aizen) are ones that are always there but never get accomplished (or at least take forever to get accomplished).

Getting to that stage where I just feel like the same scernarios are repeating itself. Meet bad people who have eaten special fruit, fight jn new land, move to next. Will give the next 3-1 a go to see what appears.

The Alabasta saga reaches its climax! Some great moments here, particularly the Straw Hats' battles with Crocodile's gang. (A)
