I just listened to this 2-disc CD set. Very good. One of the better sets by Tolle. This is a recording of two separate live seminars. I very much enjoyed the atmosphere of the lectures, the message was concise and to-the-point, and there was a nice sprinkling of humor. I would recommend this to anyone as their first introduction to Tolle.

This was fantastic. Such perfect descriptions and demonstration of the little me, egoic mind!

Sample quote: "Where is life? Here, now. Life cannot exist separately from here and now. So any denial of the now, resistance to the now, running away from the now, mentally always trying to get to the next moment because fulfillment is there somewhere and you miss this: Now."

I really love this CD.

It is clear and concise. Live in the now. Surrender to what is even if you don't like it and watch your life transform.

Be willing to let go of your thoughts. Realize that your thoughts are not you. There is no way you can understand the universe with your mind.

Very well done.

Mindfulness is popular ... and useful. Tolle shares a path to being in the moment, bringing peace and life.

Jackie says

It all sounds simplistic, and further questions do not have to be answered according to Mr Tolle: live in the now, and the universe is with you.

L says

Profound yet humorous, Tolle has a way of imparting wisdom that is so on point and gentle. This is short and deserves multiple listenings.
