Aldo Haegemans says

It is So simple Yet So many emotions on these pages already. You instantly have a connection with the characters.

Chandra says

Just great.
Clever and funny at the same time.
Loved every thing about it.

---

Callie Rose Tyler says

Solid. Has a beautiful simplicity.

Joseph Gagnon says

So most of this issue is Alex kicking and screaming in his head about how "wrong" this is, and how weird it is. He is determined to send her back. He calls the company, they come out, and he caves. She feels too much like a person to him already to have her "mind wiped" and her physical person "sanitized" before being shipped out again. Honestly, the idea does sound pretty grim. We might as well be frank, that idea is pretty much like buying a used dildo. Ick.

Alas, at the last minute, Alex changes his mind. He keeps the robot and decides to name her Ada, but before Alex can confirm her new name one of his friends shows up. Oops, now he's got some 'splainin' to do. Haha. Damn you, grandma! How do you explain to your friends your grandmother bought you a "sex toy"?

Anna says

Kate Winslet she is (Alex's sis, if you missed my review of #1)=).
And she owns a korgi!!! Awwwww.

#2 was the one that got me hooked. Thank you, #2!

Luis says

Fascinante, tierna e increíble historia.

Recién voy por el tomo 2 y ya estoy completamente enganchado. Intentaré dar una review que englobe todo lo que ya sentí al leerlo ni bien llegué a tomos más arriba. Hasta ahora, todo es demasiado eclipsante como para ser objetivo. Tendrá que tener un punto flaco (podría ser el dibujo, pero también tiene lo suyo hay que admitirlo), de lo contrario irá directo a mis favoritos.

Mona Loise says

Oooohhhh whatcha gonna do now, Alex

Tony says

So, now what? I'm not actually speculating on where the story is going, I'm just enjoying the ride. And what a slow ride it is, Luna is taking his time and allowing the reader slowly take in everything that's going on one slow frame at a time.

Kells Next Read says

Awesome!!

Alaa A says

its was a good introduction , its not fair to review a series like this I might say my thoughts along the way and give you a full review at the end.

Shauna says

I am enjoying it and the art is really nice, however I keep waiting for this series to take a creepy turn. It hasn't happened yet, thankfully it seems to be following in Chobits shoes and is continuously questioning the reader's (and Alex's!) morality.

James says

Pretty good; I enjoy the Grandma and her humor/relationship w/ her droid, and how droids have to be fed and you can communicate/access their info from anywhere... However, length-wise these are so damn short;

just feels like a teaser...

Eric says

Oooo Alex, whatchu gone done did :-)

Sharon says

Ada's dialogue is awkward but I guess it's appropriate. It's nice to get some more glimpses into the world of ubiquitous A.I.

Kadie says

It's still giving me major Her vibes but I'm liking it.
