Greatest series

Neighbors from Hell and these added honeymoon series are the best. After I finished the first six books in the Neighbors from Hell series I went looking for more and found these stories about the honeymoons. If you have not read this series go now and start.

Brenda Holder says

A Very Good Romantic Comedy

Honeymoon from Hell Box Set 1 is a very good romantic comedy that earned a rating of four stars. I enjoyed reading all those hilariously funny Bradford honeymoon from he'll stories. I would recommend this book to anyone who enjoys reading good romantic comedies.

Tonya Turner says

Nice

Enjoyed the honeymoon stories. Glad to have more added to this story. Cute funny and sexy. When's the next book coming out?

Heather andrews says

HONEYMOON FROM HELL BOOK 1:

When on a honeymoon it's important to try new things and Haley sure knew how to shock Jason, "then again, she had been caught giving him a blowjob by a seventy-year-old man wielding a flashlight and a baseball bat..."

HONEYMOON FROM HELL BOOK 2:

Zoe tends to be a heavy an active sleeper, which is very bad for Trevor, "*t!" he bit out with a grunt when her knee made contact with the body part that loved her the most and brought tears to his eyes."

HONEYMOON FROM HELL BOOK 3:

Rory and Connor knew how to make the male relatives of Rory cringe and gasp and it was fun watching them do it.

HONEYMOON FROM HELL BOOK 4:

Robert seems to have a winner in his wife and I really liked that Elizabeth wasn't shy, "Christ, he'd never met a woman that loved sucking on his k as much as his wife did. She seemed to crave it, needing it more than him."

HONEYMOON FROM HELL BOOK 5:

Jodi knows how to handle Danny when he's been a naughty boy, "Goddamn it, woman!" he snapped, resisting the urge to let her go so that he could rub his poor abused nipple. "Stop attacking me!"

HONEYMOON FROM HELL BOOK 6:

It's always fun seeing the Bradford men fighting and arguing these characters come to life.

Audiobook Review

3 1/2 STARS

OK, what can I say without offending anyone involved.

I love this series, I have them all in ebook and audio format and I always enjoy re-listening/reading to this series.

For us loyal followers of this series, Fran Jules is the voice that we hear when we press play.

I'm in no way saying that Mackenzie Hart isn't a great narrator, I do in fact own a few other audiobooks that she has narrated.

But when listening to this, none of the characters sounded as they should (previous audiobook) for example TRUCE is a historical romance and I don't think it was voiced in a way that showcases this at all.

Regardless, the stories are great and will have you smiling either way.

I love this series. Funny moments and I can't get enough of this series. I can't wait for more :)

Jess says

Every story was hilarious. Thank you R.L. Mathewson!

Chrys says

Oh how I have missed the Bradfords and their craziness!

Revisiting with Jason and Hayley and her well meaning interfering grandma.

Jason's overreaction to most things.

I must say Trevor and Zoe are still my favourites. Her insecurities strike a nerve with me and Trevor with his well meaning ways.

To where it all started with Robert and Elizabeth. They had me in stitches.

I love them all

Dani says

I love the Neighbor from Hell series and absolutely I adore the Bradfords. I love Trevor and Jason's stories and even Robert's but I didn't care too much for Danny & Jodi's story nor Darrin and Marybeth's. I just don't care for Marybeth that much and the way Jodi acts on meds and yet they keep giving her meds just got old. However the fact that Trevor and Jason played a good part of both of those stories keep my interest. Can't wait for the next Neighbor from Hell book!!!!

Tanja says

its the ultimate subject when it comes to the Bradfords and its all we want !! need !! demand !! require !! of our favorite males and their better half's

Honeymoon from Hell I

5 stars as always....

I wanted to highlight the whole novella, all of it, obviously i can't do that. It was amazing as always, i couldn't stop laughing and there was a point that i shed a tear. RL Mathewson manages to keep you turning the pages like a deranged woman.

Abso-freaking-lutely loved it!

"He sighed heavily. "Are you going to keep throwing the past in my face?" "Keep throwing the past in your face..." she repeated back, sounding a tad hysterical. "It happened an hour ago!"

"I'm in my safe place. I'm in my safe place," the Justice of the Peace mumbled around soft sobs from where he sat, huddled in the corner, rocking himself gently back and forth as he kept his hands firmly locked over his ears and his eyes squeezed shut. "I'm in my safe place..."

"Sweetheart," Jason said, adjusting his grip on her as the ride attendant shifted nervously even as he gestured for the rest of the line to move through the gate, "you're half an inch too short for this ride." "I was slouching!" "All ten times that you demanded a re-measure?"

"D-do you need anything, Mr. Bradford?" someone else asked. The response was instant, years of Bradford survival taking over in that moment of crisis. "Food, I need food."

Honeymoon from Hell II

5 Obvious Stars...

I love Trevor and i love how he loves Zoe, there is no one else in the world for him but that woman. One thing that bothers me somewhat is how everybody else can't seem to understand them together. I always thought of her as one of those models who are full figured? They have a great body except they have hips and rear and front, so, why are they not suitable? Anyways, loved the wedding!!!

"I think it would be for the best if we never spoke again or made eye contact for that matter," Trevor said, pointedly looking away from her and out the large floor to ceiling glass window of the small airport terminal. "

"He'd looked so miserable sitting there on the floor, hugging the toilet and begging her to close her eyes and block her ears so that he could "maintain what was left of his dignity as he died like a man."

Honeymoon from Hell III

5 I want Rory's life Stars...

I loved it, for once, this one had the perfect honeymoon, 24/7 room service, waking up late, and doing naughty things 24/7 in new ways of course. Buuuut, the initiation to the Bradford/James' family was absolutely amazing. I loved Connor, and how he is even more crazy than his in-laws. Obviously i wanted more details, but i managed to deal with it...on to the next one!

"I felt dirty!" Johnny cried, wrapping his large arms around himself as he backed up against the wall and shuddered at whatever memory was running through his head at the moment. "Dirty. So, dirty," he mumbled to himself, staring down at the floor as another shudder tore through him."

"You left us one bottle of water and a can of brown bread with absolutely no way to open it, you bastard! You starved us!" one of the men said, but she had no idea who since all of her attention was on the man that she loved and missed."

Honeymoon from Hell IV

5 Stars...because, what else?!

"Several hours, a twisted ankle, sprained wrist, countless number of bruises and abrasions and an incredibly sore back later..."

As always, very entertaining, very sweet, sexy, and still makes me want to be part of this family in any way i can. We get to see how it all started, The Curse, and how the future generations will have to endure their own nightmare, if they don't listen to their family's warnings...

Loved it, can't stop reading these books!

Honeymoon from Hell V

6 Stars...

I loved it, specially loved how Danny's father misbehave and obviously we get to see Jason and Trevor being annoying and not letting them have their honeymoon but Danny knows what will happen. Just loved it...

“That might be the best idea,” his father agreed with a cringe when Jodi managed to make a two hundred and fifty pound officer drop to the floor in a fetal position and sob quietly to himself.”

I still love how Jodi reacts to pain killers, that should be awesome to watch.

Honeymoon from Hell VI

As usual, RLM manages to keep me laughing like a deranged woman and loving it. And i loved how they got together was added to the book. It gave a little something something to the story. Now i am set to start Christmas from Hell...

Great follow up on the Bradford brothers

Great follow up on the Bradford brothers, a must for any Bradford fan, brilliant writer highly recommend downloading r.l.mathewson's books.

Liza says

Heh, Jason and Trevor are still the biggest babies around. It's great to read how the Bradford boys are so in love with their women and are so devoted that they are willing to look over some of their moodiness and anger. The Bradford boys just think them cute. And the ladies, although they get angry, they accept the Bradford antics and partially don't take it serious. These characters are truly a fun bunch.
