Mei says

Cute. Nothing exceptional, but interesting.

Archer says

Good ending to a great series.

Dianne Peace says

Favorite series

The Ella Grey series is my favorite in this genre. The story is fast and furious with a talented and powerful Ella doing battle and working with all the different species of Fae.

Adrienne Testa says

Wow, a perfect story with the perfect outcome. Know who your friends are and watch your enemies closely. Especially when the enemies do not care about human life. Ella is on the hunt to find her brother and save him from being a sacrifice. Its not easy when your wanted and your face is plastered all over the place. Not easy when your friend and partner is the one doing the sacrifice. But, Ella will stop at nothing to rescue her brother, even when it means she may die.

Volpot says

3.5 stars. OK ending. A little anti-climactic. Overall the series was a good light read.

ReadingKnitter says

So unexpected!

Well this final book in the series is a corker. Everything seems such a mess at the start of things and ends up all sorted but the way they get there is not what I expected.

This really is a great book. The series is fantastic. Read it!

Rachel Chiapparine says

I picked up this book in the Nook store on my tablet because I had to know how everything turned out. My personal review of the book is as follows:

In my personal opinion the plot felt very rushed and the ending felt very tied up too neatly in my personal opinion. I can't really explain why since it would give away the entire plot line for the previous books. Overall I personally rate this book a 3 and half out of 10.

Helen says

A satisfying conclusion to an intense series.

Linda says

3.5 stars

► Take all the scrumptious entertainingness of books 1, 2 and 3 in this series, and then add:

- ① Deals with supposedly dead, psychopathic neuromancers.
- ② Most delicious blood magic waves at KD
- ③ Beheading arch-demons as a hobby. Ah, that warm, joyful feeling you get when severing little heads! There's nothing quite like it, if you ask me.

So happy you agree with me, H! Oh, by the way, meet Herbert, my neighbour. He kinda sorta likes it when limbs and appendages get chopped off and stuff. He really is a lovely sort of um, chum.

- ④ Treacherous bastards and villainous mates and screeching bitches, oh my!
- ⑤ Razor chain whips, aka the first item on my 2019 Christmas wishlist.
- ⑥ The most notorious madman since the Nazis.

Looks harmless enough, doesn't he? Yeah, the guy's cunningly deceptive like that.

⑦ Suspiciously suspicious old-timey miner wannabes, complete with weathered skin, long scraggly beards, and suspenders over grimy shirts. Sexey.

⑧ Spotchy skin and boiling blisters, yum!

⑨ Zombies as ventriloquist dummies, aka the second item on my 2019 Christmas wishlist.

⑩ It's final smackdown time, you ~~bloody-shrimping~~ assholes moderately contemptible persons of somewhat disputable morals! Woohoo and stuff!

Shake it all and mix it all and stir it all and whisk it all, and what do you get? Well, something kinda sorta like this:

► Nefarious Last Words (NLW™): no, this series will not win the Pulitzer Prize. Neither will it be awarded the Nobel Prize of Literature (then again, who knows)? But it is fun as fish AND enjoyable as shrimp AND fast-paced AND not infected with the deadly Stupidly Stupid Highly Flammable Ground-Breaking UF Crap Virus (SSHFGBCV™) AND the MC is female and youngish but not a complete harebrained nitwit (cross my black withered heart and hope to slaughter puny humans and stuff). Ergo: if a mindless, rollicking good time looking for you are, then read this boisterous romp of a blessedly short, completed series you must. You are most welcome and stuff.

- Book 1: Stone Cold Magic ★★★★★
 - Book 2: Dark Harvest Magic ★★★★★
 - Book 3: Demon Born Magic ★★★★★

This was an entertaining series of books that I very much enjoyed.

Lynn says

And they all lived happily ever after

I liked the series over all but a lot of time was spent recapping in the final book and it all wrapped up a little too neatly.

Lindsey Carney says

Loved the books from start to finish, gutted there isn't anymore to come

Nadine says

Awesome book

This whole series drew me in from the very beginning. Loved the story line. The only thing that I would change is the Nazi reference in these books. There are many people in history that were responsible for thousands of deaths. I don't know why only Germans are getting a bad rep. Check out Stalin, Lenin, Mussolini, and Kim Jong Un...just to name a few. Otherwise this series is kicking.

Linda says

Well, things went about as well as can be expected. Having lost Damien to the Mages, Rogan to the in between, and Evan to Damien, Ella turns to the coven to help her save her brother. When the Mages plan a coup that really feels like Ella has no way to win, she is lucky to still have some friends on her side, and finally learns that she can't actually do it all by herself.

She is so impetuous that half the time, some of the things that befall her are of her own doing. On the one hand, I can understand sacrificing the one for the many. On the other hand, it is her family and there is an alternative. Things may not turn out perfect, but then they aren't now nor were they before the rips. Ella just needs to work on those people skills and a little planning if she wants to succeed.

Things do actually work out, but I do still miss Rogan and Damien and wish things could have worked out with them still around.
