Alannah Clarke says

I absolutely loved these Mr Men and Little Miss books. I remember getting them from my granny every week. There was so much from these simple characters, I remember filling my little bookshelf with all these books making sure I had got them all in right order. I wish I still had these books but somehow most of them got lost with many house moves or my mum gave the rest away. If I ever have kids, I will make sure they get the chance to experience these wonderful, colourful books.

The 'Mr Men' and 'Little Miss' books are so simple yet so effective. I love the way that all the characters are linked and how characters pop up in other stories!

The books are great for encouraging young children to read because they are interesting, have a variety of simple language and are short enough that young children don't get bored! Children love collecting all the characters too.

Ah, Mr Men and Little Miss, how wonderful you are!

These books made up so much of my childhood. No matter what I would go ahead and pick one up. I worked my way through them all a couple of times. Each one has a wonderful story for the child to engage with, each character being fun to read.

Everyone has a bias for their favourite character, yet every book is delightful.

I never really read any if the series, I wasn't one of those kids who collected these books. But my teacher gave me this one in primary school and I loved it. :)

Now Zenobia has joined James for homeschooling (she's a big 5-year-old now) we're not only reading all the Mr Men books but the Little Miss books as well. Zenobia might learn something from Little Miss Tidy, but then again she might not. Probably not, actually. Tidiness is not something inherent in this family.

Sigh.

But the books are great!

Maybe a little help from Little Miss Wise will be good or an advice from Mr. Clever will be great, she needs that ^^
